LIBRARY WILL BEGIN WORK ON ANNEX IN MAY

The Adams County Public Library expects to open bids next week on its proposed addition. Work will start in May and should be finished by the end of the year.

That schedule was outlined to members of the library's board of directors at their postponed March meeting Friday evening at the main library by John Gilbert, York, representative of J. Alfred Hamme, architects.

The library's capital funds drive to raise funds to pay for the $100,000 addition is scheduled to begin in early April.

CHANGES IN STAFF

Gilbert went over drawings for the addition to a children's room on the west side of the present library building and for the construction of two-story stack rooms to the rear. Remodeling of the present building also is included in the plans.

Specifications will be ready to give bidders late this month, Gilbert said. The bids probably will be opened in mid-April. During construction, efforts will be made to coordinate the work so that regular library service will not be interrupted.

In her report as librarian, Mrs. Wilson reported that Mrs. Fred Lewis has resigned as a member of the library staff and Mrs. Lois Keller has been added as a part-time employee. A new full-time staff member is Mrs. Betty Fry. Mrs. Wilson said, and two part-time bookmobile drivers have been secured, J. Stephen Whitestone and Irwin S. Suplee.

MEMORIAL BOOKS

She said that in an effort to lighten staff work, the loan period for new fiction has been increased from three to seven days while other books are loaned on (Continued On Page 2)

LIST SCHOOL WINNERS FOR ESSAY PRIZES

Five winners of school contests in the annual American Legion essay contest were announced today by Attorney John A. MacPhail, chairman of the annual essay event.

The winners elected in competitions in their own schools are Linia Griffin, New Oxford, for New Oxford Area High School; Holly Asquith, E. York St., Biglerville, for Biglerville High School; Julie Freed, Gettysburg R. 2, for Gettysburg High School; Linda Ann Frock, 295 M St., Littlestown, for Littlestown High School; and Philip Klunk, Hanover R. 4, for Delone Catholic High School.

Each of the school winners was selected from essays written by fellow Juniors in their schools.

The school winners are now being judged to select the county winners. Prizes, starting with $25 for first place, will be given to the three best in the county event.

In turn the county winner will be entered in the state American Legion essay contest.

Theme for the essay contest this year was "Are High School Students Properly Appraised of the Principles of Democratic Government?"

Dies Suddenly In Ambulance

Charles A. Rittenhouse, 80, York Springs R. 2, died Friday evening at 5:15 o'clock in Straban Twp. while en route by ambulance from his home to the Warner Hospital.

The Adams County coroner, Dr. C. G. Crist, said the death was caused by chronic myocarditis. Mr. Rittenhouse had lived alone and had been in failing health for the last two years.

A son of the late Mathias and Annie (Singer) Rittenhouse, he was a native of Lancaster and for many years before coming to Adams County was a machinist for the Pennsylvania Railroad at Altoona. While living here he was a state employee.

He was a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church of York Springs and is the last of his family. There are no survivors.

Funeral services Monday morning at 11 o'clock from the Dugan Funeral Home, Bendersville, with his pastor, the Rev. C. M. Bee, officiating. Interment in the Bendersville Cemetery. There will be no viewing.

Records Fall At Library

New records are being set almost weekly at the Adams County Public Library, Mrs. Mary S. Wilson, librarian, told the library's board of directors Friday evening.

A new record of 700 loans in one day was set there on Saturday, February 23. The old record of 513, which was set in February of last year, was topped three times last month. On February 2, a new mark was set at 529 only to be exceeded February 9 when 563 loans were made. The current record of 700 came two weeks later.

Mrs. Wilson said weekly jams develop at the library on Saturdays and point up the urgent need for more work space and a reference room that will afford library patrons the space and study facilities they need. She added that the reference section of the county library has been doubled in the last year. Mrs. Wilson's report showed that 5,787 loans were made last month at the main library out of the total of 9,820 through all outlets including the bookmobile.

MRS. KELLY, ARMY NURSE, DIES FRIDAY

Mrs. Lillian J. Kelly, 72, N. Seton Ave., Emmitsburg, died Friday evening at 6 o'clock at the home of her sister, Mrs. Carrie F. Rodgers, Emmitsburg. She had been in ill health for the last two years.

Widow of the late James J. Kelley, she was a daughter of the late Daniel R. and Mary J. (Hanley) Gelwicks, and was a member of St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Emmitsburg, of the Sodality of that church, and of the American Legion.

She was a nurse with the armed forces in World War I, stationed in Brest, France, with the AEF. She had also served for a number of years in veterans' hospitals including 11 years at the Veterans Hospital at Castle Point, N.Y.

Survivors include her sister and a number of nieces and nephews. Funeral services Monday morning with meeting at the Wilson Funeral Home, Emmitsburg, at 9:30 to go to St. Joseph's Catholic Church for the Requiem Mass at 10 o'clock at which Rev. Fr. Louis Storms will officiate. Interment in the church cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home in Emmitsburg Sunday evening after 7 o'clock. The Rosary will be recited at the funeral home Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.

DEATHS

Miss Mary Bolen

Miss Mary C. Bolen, 58, Harrisburg, died Thursday afternoon at Harrisburg Hospital.

An employee of the Olmsted Air Force Base, she was a member of Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Church, Harrisburg.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Anna Amiller of Akron, O., and a brother, the Rt. Rev. John P. Bolen, pastor of Sacred Heart Basilica, Conewago Chapel.

The brother will celebrate Solemn Requiem High Mass Monday at 10 a.m. at Our Lady of the Blessed Sacrament Church, Harrisburg. Burial will be in Holy Cross Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home at Third and MacLay Sts., Harrisburg, Sunday evening. The Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. (Continued On Page 2)

New Syrian Premier Is Named Following Coup

By WEBB MCKINLEY

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP)—The Revolutionary Council in Damascus announced today veteran politician Salah Bitar has been named premier of Syria in the wake of an army coup d'etat staged by officers friendly to Egypt's President Gamal Abdel Nasser.

Bitar was a minister in the United Arab Republic cabinet when Syria and Egypt were joined as one nation. He quit, however, before the final split two years ago and has maintained his support for Syrian independence.

The new rulers claimed complete control of the turbulent country and proclaimed today a national holiday. They said the coup took place without bloodshed.

There were reports of scattered resistance within Syria, but the country's borders were sealed and it was impossible to check them. Iraq sent troops to the Syrian border and said it would fight to prevent any interference with the new government.

CUMBERLAND SUPERVISORS SET TAX RATE

Cumberland Twp. supervisors Friday evening adopted a $55,017 budget for the coming year and set a five-mill tax rate on real estate—the same rate as last year.

The $55,017 budget was divided into $3,712 for general government, $1,090 for protection to persons and property, $48,271 for highways and $1,944 miscellaneous.

In adopting the budget the supervisors said the amount allotted for highways includes plans to black top the present "stabilized" road extending from the Battlefield Ave. near the Battle-ground Restaurant at the Littlestown Rd. to the Taneytown Rd., at the former Epicy blacksmith shop, a distance of 1.3 miles.

SPECIAL TAXES TOO

The supervisors also readopted the two per cent amusement tax and the $5 per cent tax levied last year.

Bids for asphalt were opened with Roadite Inc., York, the low bidder at 23.93 cents per gallon for MC-1 asphalt and 17.4 cents per gallon for E-1 asphalt.

MacIntosh Inc., Harrisburg, and Service Supply, York, also submitted bids which Cumberland Twp. Secretary Lawrence Heltzel said were from three to five cents a gallon higher than the Roadite bids.

The board also Friday night filled out its application for county aid for roadwork.

The next meeting will be held Friday evening, April 5, at the home of the secretary.

Commends Nurses For Polio Work

Dr. Harrison Habach, chairman of the Adams County Medical Society committee arranging for the distribution of Sabin oral polio vaccine Sunday, today commended the school nurses of the county for their "outstanding work." They visited the public and parochial schools, distributed forms to be filled out when they go for the vaccine Sunday and outlined the program by which it is hoped 40,000 Adams Countians will take the vaccine.

The distribution will be made from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sunday at Gettysburg Senior High School and from noon to 5 p.m. at Fairfield, Biglerville and New Oxford High Schools, and Littlestown Rolling Acres Elementary School.

TO ADDRESS DINNER

The Rev. Dr. Nevin Smith, Hanover, will be the speaker at the eighth anniversary ladies' night dinner of the Kiwanis Club Monday evening at 7 o'clock at Trinity United Church of Christ. President Charles W. Pentz said members of other Kiwanis Clubs in the district and their ladies have been invited to attend the dinner.

3 SHARE ESTATE

Under the terms of the will of the late Edna B. Zane, Gettysburg, her three grandchildren will receive equal shares of her estate, estimated "in excess of $2,500." Beneficiaries are Ann Nancy Lynch Hansen, Eric E. Duckstad Sr. and Kenderton S. Lynch II.

PURCHASES TAVERN

Robert Burke, McSherrystown groceryman, purchased the tavern property of Jerome H. and Mary Eline, McSherrystown, for $6,600 at sheriff's sale on the courthouse steps this morning.

Chosen Spectrum Queen

Miss Janet D. Johnson, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. Lester O. Johnson, 84 E. Broadway, was crowned 1963 Spectrum Queen Friday evening at the annual winter weekend dance at Gettysburg College. Miss Johnson, a Junior at the college, was selected by comic Jonathan Winters of the NBC television network from seven entries selected by the fraternities.

JESUIT WILL SPEAK MONDAY AT ST. JOSEPH

Rev. Fr. Walter J. Burghardt, S.J., will address the faculty of St. Joseph College Monday evening at 7:15 o'clock. His topic will be "Catholic Education and Christian Unity." Sister Rosemary, president of the school, announced that faculty members of Mt. St. Mary's College have been invited to attend. She said that it was "especially fitting" for the college faculties to meet together at this time because of the "common bonds" each college has to Mother Seton. Mother Elizabeth Ann Seton, foundress of St. Joseph College and the Daughters of Charity in the United States, is being raised to the dignity of the altar on March 17. She will be beatified in Rome on that date.

Father Burghardt is a widely known Jesuit scholar. Since 1946 he has been professor of theology at Woodstock College in Maryland. He is a member of many learned societies and has written numerous books and articles concerning theological topics. He is also a member of the Baltimore Archdiocesan Commission on Christian Unity and chairman of the subcommittee for Catholic teachers.

Sister Rosemary announced also that wives and friends of Mount Saint Mary's and Saint Joseph faculties have been invited to attend the lecture.

MANY DEEDS ARE RECORDED

Property transfers in the county recorder's office include: Thomas E. Dehoff Jr. and Reta C. Dehoff, Littlestown R. 1, to Donald B. and Elizabeth F. Arentz, a property in Mt. Joy for $500; Effie C. Bream, Gettysburg, to Jack A. and Joan Kump, Gettysburg R. 1, a property in Tyrone Twp. for $12,000; J. Burnell and Laree A. King, Hanover, to Junior and Doris L. Ledford, Union Twp., a property in Union Twp. for $150; Rodney C. and Anna Mary Taylor, Biglerville R. 1, to Fred D. and Phyllis J. Herick, Quincy, a tract in Hamilton Twp. for $900; Margaret M. Sanders, Gettysburg, to Anders S. and Eleanor S. Lund, Chevy Chase, Md., a 33-acre property in Hamilton Twp. for $14,700; Luther W. and Matilda J. Slifer, Gettysburg R. 2, to Charles P. and Tenny L. Waddell, Gettysburg R. 2, a property in Liberty and Freedom Twp. for $18,000.

4-H "WEEK" CLOSES WITH "FUN NIGHT"

Adams County's approximately 536 4-H members brought their observance of the annual 4-H Club Week to a close at a "Fun Night" program in the Biglerville High School Friday night. Approximately 200 attended.

During the week 4-H members placed displays in the windows of Weishaar Bros. and the Jack and Jill Shoppe here, the Bendersville National Bank, Biglerville High School, Biglerville National Bank and in Littlestown and Hanover.

Heading up the Fun Night program were members of the Light Horse and Pony Club who served as "general chairman." Lynn Galusha, Bendersville; Sally Jackson, Gettysburg R. 3, and Kurt Semke, York Springs.

HAVE 536 MEMBERS

The Gettysburg Home Economics Club, headed by Muriel Hartman, Wade Ave., was in charge of refreshments.

While total membership in the 4-H Clubs of the county is 536, there are 260 different boys and girls in the 17 agriculture clubs and 226 in the 16 home economics clubs. Some youngsters belong to more than one club thus bringing the total membership to 536 and many carry out more than one program during the year, thus making the number of projects 635. There are 56 adult leaders for the 33 clubs plus approximately 40 junior leaders—boys or girls who are over age 15 and have had two years or more of 4-H work, who serve as assistant leaders for the various clubs.

POLAR PROJECT

Duane Duncan, associate county agent, said vegetable gardening is the most popular single project of the youngsters, with 70 listed as carrying gardens as part of their club work. More members are engaged in sewing or food preparation projects, but are divided into various types of projects depending upon their skills. There are 67 in "start stitching" clubs, 14 in the "make a school dress" groups, 20 in the advanced dressmaking units and five have reached the point where they can "free lance" in their dressmaking work.

Flowers attract the attention of many of the youngsters, 59 have flower raising projects; 56 are in the "tasty snacks" projects; 54 in "outdoor cooking"; 29 in "fun to bake," and 17 in "Meal-time Magic."

Fifty-four have horse or pony projects, 42 of the older youths are in "town and country" projects, learning about marketing, etc., 34 are feeding pigs, 32 raising baby beavers, 21 in dairy, 23 in entomology and the rest are divided into a multitude of projects ranging from six who are raising field corn to 10 who are raising rabbits and five who are in a project on rearing youngsters entitled "Children Can Be Fun."

ADVANCED PROGRAMS

The county's 4-H program during the last year sent a record number to state and national programs, winning numerous awards.

There were 12 who attained the 4-H Club Congress at Pennsylvania State University, four who were at the 4-H state Leadership School at Washington, 20 took part in the district 4-H demonstration contest, 36 attended 4-H State Days at Pennsylvania State University, three attended the 4-H National Congress at Chicago, six were in the 4-H district dress revue, one in the state dress revue, nine in the district dairy show, 18 in the district horse show, three in the state 4-H horse show, 28 in the York-Adams beef (Continued On Page 2)

Russia Declares It Will Remove Several Thousand Troops From Cuba In Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Soviet Union has renewed its promise that between now and next weekend several thousand Russian troops will be sailing home from Cuba.

Moscow, according to a Feb. 21 Soviet Ambassador Antoly S. Dobrynin put the pledge publicly on the record late Friday.

"I have already mentioned to Secretary Rusk that we will withdraw several thousand troops . . . We will do what we promised we will do," he told newsmen at the State Department.

Earlier in the day the secretary of state had told a news conference that the outflow of Russian soldiers from Cuba was already under way and enough Russian ships are moving to Cuba to carry out the several thousand military men.

NOT SPECIFIC

Children Share Snyder Estates

Betty Jane Bragdon and Samuel F. Snyder Jr., will share equally in the estates of their parents, the late Lillian M. and S. F. Snyder, who died within a day of each other.

Under terms of the wills the daughter also will receive, free of all taxes, the S. F. Snyder Company and all rights and accounts receivable of "Snyder Malletts." The combined estates are estimated at $10,000 in personal property and $100,000 in a total of seven properties in Gettysburg.

Hubert W. Gallagher is executor of both estates.

FOUR SHARE IN PA. HANDOUT ON INSURANCE

Four Adams County insurance agents are listed in Harrisburg news reports as having shared in the quiet lading out by the Lawrence administration of $77,562.40 just before leaving office. A total of $16,183 of the total went to favored agents in 13 midstate counties, according to a report by Property and Supplies Secretary Ralph G. Hornbeck.

Those listed from Adams County included A. J. Carbaugh, Arendtsville; P. Emory Weaver, Littlestown; Jay D. Johnson, Gettysburg, all $300, and Herman W. Dell, New Oxford, $350.

The funds were sent out January 13, Hornbeck said, two days before the Scranton administration moved into office.

The money comes from commissions earned on insurance placed by the state on its automobiles, but the brokers do nothing to earn the commissions themselves.

Called the insurance "grave train" on Capital Hill, the funds have been given out for years and, unless several bills introduced in the legislature change things, they'll continue to be handed out.

Police Apprehend Young Fugitives

Three 16-year-old escapees from a Maryland correctional institution were picked up by state police near Cross Keys Friday morning, according to Sgt. Joseph A. Tappe, officer in charge of the York substation.

Tappe said the three boys had escaped from the institution and stolen a car owned by George P. Warthen, Emmitsburg, before coming into York County.

Tappe said that Trooper Patrick Malone spotted the boys in York County and succeeded in overtaking them about one mile west of Abbotstown on the Lincoln Highway at about 10:45 a.m.

He had the assistance of the Abbotstown police chief, John Bechtel.

The boys were released to Maryland authorities Friday afternoon, Tappe said.

1,315 Countians Are Getting State Aid

Adams County was "better than average" as far as the number receiving public assistance according to figures released by the state for aid in January.

The report for the county showed there were 1,315 persons on assistance or 2.5 per cent of the population. In the state there were 467,904 receiving assistance or 4.1 per cent of the population. County Assistance grants totaled $62,350. Dauphin County had 8,699 on assistance, or 3.9 per cent of its population. Cumberland County had 1,509 on assistance or 1.2 per cent of its population.

Seek Federal Funds For Two Observances Here This Year

Pennsylvania's Gettysburg Centennial Commission Friday endorsed federal financial participation in the 100th Anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg and centenary of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

It. Gen. Milton G. Baker (ret.), chairman of the special commission created by the General Assembly to plan events for the two observances, announced at the commission's meeting at Indian-town Gap Military Reservation that a bill was to be introduced in Congress as the commission was in session.

SEEK $300,000

It calls for the establishment of a Federal Commission to participate with Pennsylvania's Commission in the sponsorship of events during July 1-4 and November 19. The measure calls for financial participation on a matching basis, with the federal share not to exceed $150,000. Pennsylvania's U. S. Senators Joseph S. Clark and Hugh Scott and Pennsylvania Congressman George A. Goodling sponsored the bill.

"There are the two important events on the Civil War calendar, and the nation as a whole not only shares an interest, but a responsibility for these observances," said Chairman Baker.

He told members, "I have every reason to believe we will meet with success."

GOODLING BILL

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Congressman George A. Goodling, 19th District of Pennsylvania, today introduced a bill to create a 10-man commission to participate in the 100th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg and Lincoln's Gettysburg Address.

Goodling said: "Mr. Speaker, this year Americans everywhere will observe the centennial of the Battle of Gettysburg and the centennial of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, two of the most important events in our nation's history."

"I am offering a bill today that would authorize the President to appoint a commission of 10 persons to cooperate with the commission appointed by Governor Scranton of Pennsylvania to plan and carry out the ceremonies relating to those events. It also would authorize the secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force to provide for the participation of the armed services in the observances."

"The State of Pennsylvania has already allocated $105,000 for use by the State Commission and this bill authorizes up to $150,000 for federal participation."

"Pennsylvania's two senators, Clark and Scott, are introducing an identical measure in the Senate today."

"Although the center of activity for these observances is in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, the Battle of Gettysburg and Lincoln's Address at the battlefield are integral parts of American history. I am hopeful that the Congress will recognize the great national interest in these events and act favorably on this bill."

PORK SCARCE ON LOCAL MART

Fresh pork was scarce today on Farmers' Market, but attendants promise a large supply of all types of fresh-butchered pork next Saturday. Tenderloin in limited quantities was available at $1.10 a pound, and sausage was 60 cents each. Hog maws were 60 cents each.

Fresh-dressed ducks were offered at 60 cents a pound and moved rapidly. There was no other dressed poultry.

Apple, cherry and blueberry pies moved rapidly at 50 cents each; mince pies were 60 cents; cakes were $1.25; potato salad, 25 cents a pint; fresh country cream, 20 cents a half pint; butter, 65 cents a pound, and schmear-kase, 20 cents a pint.

Apples continued in ample supplies at 30 cents, 50 cents and $1.50; local potatoes were 45 cents a quart box; dried apple snitz, 35 cents a quart, and honey and apple butter, 50 cents each. Pickled eggs were 6 cents each, home-canned peaches and pears were 50 cents a quart and horseradish was 25 cents and 50 cents a jar.

BIRTH ANNOUNCEMENTS

At Hanover Hospital
Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Knouse, New Oxford, daughter, February 27.

CHAIRMAN IS ACQUITTED OF MACING COUNT

DOYLESTOWN, Pa. (AP) — John T. Welsh, Bucks County Democratic chairman, has been acquitted of charges he pressured highway and turnpike workers for political contributions.

A jury of seven men and five women returned the verdict Friday night almost 24 hours after getting the case from Judge Lawrence A. Monroe. It ruled Welsh must pay court costs of $2,178.

"I'm very happy with the decision of not guilty," said Welsh, "but I am disappointed that the court costs were placed on me. If I'm not guilty, I'm not guilty."

Defense attorney William M. Power said he would seek an arrest of judgment against imposition of the costs.

Welsh was accused of threatening workers with "serious consequences" if they did not contribute according to a certain scale. The threats allegedly were made last July at two meetings.

The charges were brought under a 1939 state law. Five times since it got the case Thursday night, the jury returned to court to ask clarification of the act.

Judge Monroe told them voluntary contributions or solicitation was not in violation of the law. He told them to determine what an ordinary person would consider a threat.

Seventeen prosecution witnesses testified they interpreted Welsh's use of serious consequences as meaning they would be fired. Defense witnesses said they took it to mean that without money the party would lose the election and they would thereby lose their jobs to Republicans.

The defense presented 949 character witnesses, including former Democratic Gov. David Lawrence and several Republican politicians.

Welsh said he would resume his duties as party chairman immediately.

4-H "WEEK"

roundup and one took part in the National Junior Vegetable Growers' Association program at Florida.

Part of the expense for those engaged in state and national competition is paid by a fund raised by the 4-H from donations by individuals, with the remainder of the cost born by the youngsters themselves. This year the 4-H fund, augmented recently by the sale of cookies, for the first time is $1,100 but 4-H officials are doubtful whether even that sum will "reach" because of the quality of the work being done by the county youngsters. 4-H heads locally will be somewhat surprised if this year the county youth do not do better than ever in state and national competition, which will entail more funds to assist in paying part of the cost of the local competitors.

RAISING $1,000

At the present time the Senior Extension Club is also at work raising $1,000 to send a county girl, Miss Ann Lott, overseas in May as an International Farm Youth Exchange member. So far $200 has been raised by the recently started campaign.

Duncan said national 4-H records show that while the number of farm youth has been declining the number of 4-H members has been vastly increasing on a national scale. U.S. census figures, he said, showed that in 1940 there were 30,216,181 on farms in the U.S. of whom 6,744,073 were farm youths of 4-H age. At that time 12.8 per cent of the farm youths, or 860,019, were members of 4-H. In 1960 according to the census figures there were 13,444,898 listed as living on farms of whom

Wedding

Harris-Hull

Miss Joan Marie Hull, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman L. Hull, Abbottstown R. 1, became the bride of Ronald Edward Harris, son of Mrs. Verna J. Harris, Abbottstown, Saturday, February 23, at 2 p.m. at Emory Methodist Church, New Oxford. The Rev. W. William Kennard performed the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Merle Millhimes, York Springs, was organist. Miss Shirley Good, New Oxford R. 1, was the maid of honor. Ronald Rowland, Hanover R. 5, was best man. Ushers were Terry Hull, Abbottstown R. 1, and James Baker, Abbottstown. The couple will reside in Abbottstown. Mrs. Harris is a 1962 graduate of New Oxford High School and is employed by Lana Lobell, Inc. Mr. Harris is a 1959 graduate of New Oxford High School.

a three-week basis.

She reported books have been donated as memorials to Mrs. William D. Himes, C. Ross Shuman, Q. D. Rebert, George L. Haenn, Miss Carolyn VanCleave and Ira D. Younk.

She also announced the gift of $120 from the Upper Adams Lions Club to be used for bookmobile service in that section.

SERVES AS LOBBYIST

Mrs. Wilson also reported to the board on her activities as a lobbyist for the Pennsylvania Library Association at Harrisburg. She told of conferences with Governor Scranton, Lt. Gov. Shafer, state Senator D. Elmer Hawbaker and others including the state budget secretary, J. Martin Brackbill.

She suggested to the board that a plan be developed for bringing local pressure to bear through letters, telegrams or personal visits on legislators in favor of library legislation in committee or on the floor of either house.

Joseph Dobransky, coordinator for the rural library service demonstration projects, reported 333 book loans on the first four days of service when the new bookmobile covered 176 miles. Bad weather and flooded roads were encountered on several of those days, he said. He noted that 7,500 bookmobile schedules have been distributed. The schedules will be altered for the summer and changed again next fall, he said.

FINANCIAL REPORTS

Mrs. Madeline Kilalea, president of the Friends of the Library, reported on the progress of that group's membership drive.

The board will meet next on April 5.

Payment of bills totaling $4,212 was ordered. Largest item on the list was $2,446 for salaries and withholding tax. Receipt items showed $2,750 received from the county commissioners, $650 from the Upper Adams School District, Chest and $77.47 in fines.

President H. Thomas Pyle presided at the meeting with these directors in attendance: C. P. Keefer, Amos D. Meyers, Allen S. Stauffer, Mrs. Ralph Tyson, Roy A. Hammond, Prof. Carey Moore, Mrs. S. Richard Schubert and Don Becker. Mrs. Wilson and Md. Dobransky also attended.

Dismiss Complaint Against Water Co.

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Public Utility Commission dismissed a complaint against the Hungerford Water Co., but at the same time Friday ordered the utility to make general plant improvements.

The PUC gave the utility 30 days in which to file a report on the specific steps that need to be taken in order to insure an adequate water supply.

The complaint had been lodged by the Hungerford Packing Co., of Shrewsbury Twp., York County which contended the utility was not furnishing adequate service.

The packing company had requested that the state order the utility to deliver a minimum of 25 gallons of water per minute. The PUC ruled the request represented extraordinary service which might adversely affect service of 65 customers in the Hungerford area.

2,826,128 were of 4-H age and 1,206,981 or 42.7 per cent of all farm youth were in 4-H.

Duncan noted that Adams County has a special reason for an active 4-H program. The late O. H. Benson, for many years a resident of the Guernsey area and later Gettysburg R. D., who was best known locally as one of the founders of the Adams County Public Library and for his Boy Scout work, serving as a national head of the Lone Scout branch of the Boy Scouts, was one of the founders of 4-H. While a school superintendent in Iowa he became interested in rural youth agriculture clubs, and set up the 4-H idea and clover leaf design. As a result he was selected by the U.S. Department of Agriculture to serve 4-H nationally for a time.

CHARGE MAN WITH MURDER

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—An itinerant Florida man was charged with murder Friday after police said he admitted killing an Erie man he had sought for three years.

Miguel Maldonado of Route 1, Delray Beach, a migrant worker, was accused of killing Domingo Alvarez, 26, in an Erie diner Thursday night.

Maldonado was picked up about five hours after the shooting in suburban Millersburg Twp. when police answered a complaint that someone was sleeping in a parked car in a backyard.

Maldonado told police he had been looking for Alvarez for three years ago in a Delray, Fla., bar, crippling Juan for life.

Police quoted Maldonado as saying Alvarez shot his brother three years ago in a Delray, Fla., bar, crippling Juan for life.

Maldonado told police he arrived in Erie Thursday.

Police said Alvarez had been fighting with another man in Carl's Diner Thursday night when a third man, apparently Maldonado, leaped up from a table, fired a pistol and fled.

Seeds Needed To Aid Rural U.S.A.

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Agricultural production will be more of a problem in 20 years than it is now, says Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman.

Freeman, in Pittsburgh to address the 15th annual Roosevelt Dinner of the Pittsburgh chapter of the Americans for Democratic Action, said there is a need to "redevelop rural America."

"If you think the farm problem is serious now, consider 1960," Freeman said in an interview.

"Our projections show that if production increases at the current rate, we will need 50 million less acres of land devoted to farming," Freeman said the Department of Agriculture is encouraging the conversion of farm land to other uses, such as recreation, forests and industrial development.

DEATHS

Rockey Is Given Lemon Sour Balls

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller Friday received a "tongue-in-cheek" gift from California Gov. Edmund F. Brown—15 pounds of lemon sour balls in a redwood box.

Brown, a Democrat, explained in a letter to New York's top Republican that the gift was "a sort of consolation prize" because California now claims to be first in population, the place long held by New York, though the figures are in dispute.

Brown also included five pounds of candy kisses to take the sting out of the gift and wished Rockefeller "a very sweet future."

SOLONS DENY NEW AGE LEVEL

BINGHAMTON, N.Y. (AP)—A proposal to raise the age level at which youthful defendants receive special court treatment appeared today to be headed for failure in the 163 Legislature.

A spokesman for the Joint Legislative Committee on Court Reorganization said Friday that the committee did not believe there should be any change now in the present maximum of 15.

The Legislature is expected to accept the committee recommendations.

Louis Lauer, assistant counsel, reported that the committee was opposed to raising the age limit.

The committee completed here Friday a series of three public hearings on the age questions. Previous sessions were held in Rochester and New York City.

Under existing procedures, defendants through age 15 are brought into family courts under special provisions that include secrecy of records.

Older defendants are arraigned in the same criminal courts in which adults appear.

Pressure Cancels 'Little Black Sambo'

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—A local Parent Teacher Association has cancelled a puppet show about "Little Black Sambo" Friday after telephone callers protested the children's story was derogatory to Negroes.

Willard Funk, principal of the Fulton Elementary School where the show had been scheduled for Saturday night, said the callers claimed they represented The National Council of Christian and Jews, but Robert Roth, president of NCCJ's Lancaster chapter said "this is the most ridiculous thing I ever heard of."

FACTORY TO CLOSE

ENDICOTT, N.Y. (AP) — The misses and children's shoe factory of the Endicott Johnson Corp. in nearby Johnson City will close April 15, the company reports. Between 150 and 175 employees will be affected.

The company had announced earlier this week that it would lay off 150 of 90 workers at two tanneries here.

Orrtanna

ORRTANNA — Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Sharrah and family are moving today from the Wilbur Sites property at Iron Springs to the tenant house on the Rice and Lott fruit farm, formerly Shelly Brothers, which was vacated recently by the Kyle Hatcher family.

The name of Carlton Biesecker, Columbus, O., was inadvertently omitted from the account of his mother's birthday celebration. Mrs. Beulah Biesecker also has three grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Wetzel and daughter, Candy, Solly, Md., were callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wetzel Friday.

They were enroute to their hunting lodge in Tioga County to spend the weekend. They have recently returned from a Florida trip.

Dean Chapman has secured employment with the Gettysburg Shoe Company.

MRS. LESTER BOWMAN McSHERRYSTOWN — The annual kite flying contest at McSherrystown will be held Sunday, March 24, at 1 p.m. at St. Mary's baseball field.

At the meeting of the Cub Pack 107 committee at the home of Ira Brown, 414 Delone Ave., it was decided that prizes will be awarded for the smallest, largest, highest and oddest kites. Only homemade kites may compete for prizes. In case of rain the contest

COURT RULES FOR PERONISTS IN ARGENTINA

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP)—Peronists scored a political breakthrough Friday as newspapers reported a climate for a pre-election coup is building up in Argentina.

Electoral Judge Leopoldo Isauralde ruled the Popular Union party—a Peronist front whose election victories a year ago sparked a military coup—is eligible to field candidates for the June 23 national elections.

There was no immediate reaction from the government. But the ruling was certain to draw strong protests from the military, although the judge held that the Popular Union's propaganda may not show backing for ex-dictator Juan D. Peron.

POSSIBLE CANDIDATE

Dr. Raul Matara, secretary-general of the Justicialista-Peronista movement, said the Popular Union will operate within these guidelines. But he added, "Laws cannot be made to keep songs, slogans and bongos away from the people"—a reference to crowd-stirring Peronist methods.

The judge also certified as eligible the Socialist Democratic party and the Argentine People's party. Retired Gen. Pedro Aramburu, who was provisional president after Peron's overthrow in 1955, is considered a possible candidate of the People's party.

Newspaper accounts said a coup is in the making to block elections for president, Congress and provincial offices. An army intelligence officer was reported under arrest in connection with a subversive plot and the air force announced it is investigating a $2.8-million contraband case.

Air force officers were said to be involved in the smuggling of arms, ammunition, drugs and subversive material, newspapers reported.

Two Players Added To District Team

BEAVER FALLS, Pa. (AP)—Two players each from Westminster and Philadelphia Textile have been named to the 11-man NAIA All-District 30 basketball team.

Westminster placed Warren Salade and Lou Skurcinski and Philadelphia placed Herb Magee and Junius Johnson on the team announced Friday.

The rest of the team included: Bob Byler, Slippery Rock; Bob Herzog, Bloomsburg; Jim Irons, Geneva; Terry Crouthamel, Mansfield; Jack Byrnes, Gannon; Al Bush, Alliance; and Ron Lauchor, Kutztown.

HAS CHRYSLER STOCK

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The annual report of Consolidation Coal Co. revealed Friday that the firm owns five per cent of Chrysler Corp. stock.

Consolidation said the "substantial investment" in the auto firm was one of its highlights in 1962. The coal company said it purchased 440,000 shares of Chrysler stock at a cost of $24,130,000. This figure to 4.99 per cent of Chrysler's total shares outstanding.

FATALLY INJURED

PITTSBURGH (AP)—A 12-foot fall from a wall fatally injured Charles Mossburg, 50, of nearby North Versailles Twp. Friday. He had been pruning a tree at his home.

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Mrs. Eleanor McMinn, 64, of the city's Oakland section died in Montefiore Hospital Friday. She had been struck by a truck near her home last Feb. 11.

"DREAM WITH ME"

They say I'm just a dreamer
... roaming the clouds above
... when I pen flowery phrases
... of tenderness and love
... they say I'm but a fool
... who dwells on make-believe
... when I try hard to comfort
... those who ache and grieve
... they say life is a valley
... covered with hate and greed
... and that my words of kindness
... serve little or no need
... I'm well aware how life is
... I live it day by day
... but something tells me I must write
... what my heart has to say
... so I will keep on dreaming
... with hope in things to be
... dear God please make all mankind
... dream along with me.

Specialist Will Speak Wednesday

John Baylor, extension agronomist, and Lester Burdette, extension livestock specialist, of the Pennsylvania State University faculty, will speak Wednesday evening at the second session of the Beef Cattle Production Schools in the Thomasville fire hall, starting at 7:30 o'clock.

The session is the second of three on beef cattle production to be presented by specialists from Penn State. Anyone interested in beef cattle is invited to attend.

Dr. Baylor will speak on "Forage Production—The Backbone of the Cow Business" and will explain the pasture and hay crop establishment and management.

Burdette will outline "Feeding the Cow Herd" and discuss nutrient requirement of the brood cow and developing herd replacements.

For further information on the meeting, and the third session to be held Wednesday, March 20, is available at the county agent's office, 334-3114.

Session Thursday On Lampshades

At the leader training meeting on "Making Fabric Lampshades" held on Thursday evening at Gettysburg National Bank's West Street branch room, Mrs. Helen D. Tunison, extension home economist, said "proper lighting begins with enough light available where and when it is needed and distributed without glare or excessive contrast. Portable lamps contribute beauty and lighting flexibility."

The leaders started by preparing shades for covering and at the next meeting, March 14, at the bank meeting room, will complete fabric shades.

Leaders attending were Mrs. Richard Cline, Gettysburg Evening group; Mrs. J. Ray Rein-dollar and Mrs. J. R. Riden, Littleton group; Mrs. Ellis Rentzel and Mrs. Victor Woerner, Harrisburg Road; Mrs. Mary Irving, Conewago; Mrs. Atlee Keefe, York Springs; Mrs. Kenneth Oyerly, Marsh Creek; Mrs. Paul Peterson, Marsh Creek; Mrs. Frank Bruner, Fairfield; Mrs. Walter Keeney, Cashtown, and Mrs. Stanford Roberts, New Chester.

Curtius Publishers Loses $18,917,000

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Curtius Publishing Co. reported a net loss of $18,917,000 for 1962 and management has asked stockholders to remove restrictions on borrowing.

Management Friday asked for three amendments to the firm's charter, one to lift the borrowing restriction, and the others to permit board diversification moves and setting up of an executive stock option plan.

The 1962 loss compared with a deficit of $4,149,000 the previous year.

The proposed amendments were included in proxy material mailed Friday for the company's annual meeting April 17.

DIVORCEE SHOT; MAN SUICIDES

NEWARK, Ohio (AP)—A former Pennsylvania man is dead and a 45-year-old divorcee seriously wounded as a result of an apparent attempted murder and suicide Friday night at St. Louisville, five miles north of here, the Licking County sheriff's office reported.

Deputies said William Hickman, 41, formerly of Lebanon, Pa., apparently shot himself in the head after Mrs. Evelyn Watson was shot three times at the home of her parents. Hickman died at 1 a.m. today in University Hospital, Columbus.

Mrs. Watson was admitted to a hospital in Newark where attendants said her condition was poor. Deputies said the shootings occurred after Hickman went to the home and said he wanted to pick up some belongings. Hickman stayed at the home several months last year, authorities said.

Lauchnor Heads State Team Again

JOHNSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Kutztown's Ron Lauchnor and Slippery Rock's Bob Byler head the State Colleges Conference all-league basketball team for 1962-63.

Lauchnor is the only repeater from last year's team and the only senior on the team announced Friday.

Byler, a 5-foot-10 guard on the conference's championship team, was the only unanimous choice for the squad, selected by the league coaches.

Terry Crouthamel of Mansfield, Bob Herzog of Bloomsburg and Dan Petchel of Edinboro were the first team choices.

Picked for second team berths were Mike Kometa, Millersville; Casper Voithofer, California; Tom Wallon, Mansfield; Bill Leachman, Clarion; and Rege Weiss, Shippensburg.

Plan Review Of IRS Reorganization

WASHINGTON (AP)—Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon says reorganization of the Internal Revenue Service will be reviewed fully before any jobs are eliminated at Scranton, Pa.

In a letter to Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., made public Friday, Dillon said "you can be sure that no action will be taken until there has been an opportunity to review carefully the matter in all its aspects."

Dillon said his office was concerned with the welfare of all depressed areas as well as with economy in government.

Under reorganization of the IRS as announced earlier this week, more than 100 jobs at Scranton would be split up between the Philadelphia and Pittsburgh regional offices or eliminated.

Dillon said the plan cannot become effective until Jan. 1, 1964 anyway, leaving ample time for review.

POTTSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Marion Swartley, 51, of Linfield, was killed Friday when her car skidded on a patch of ice and crashed head-on into a truck on the Linfield Road, three miles east of this Montgomery County borough. The truck driver, Fred Verter, Schwenksville, escaped injury.

He came down with the flu Tuesday. He was sent to St. John's Hospital in nearby Santa Monica. He's scheduled to be released Monday, his 59th birthday.

PICKET DINNER FOR B. KENNEDY

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Twenty-five young people picketed a dinner Friday night where Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy was cited, in absentia, for encouraging foreign students.

The group carried placards saying such things as "Bob Kennedy Ignores Police Brutality to Black Americans," and "Kennedy Denies Religious Freedom to Black Muslims."

All in the group were neatly dressed. The majority was white. One of them said the group, called AD Hoc, was formed for this one occasion because they didn't feel Kennedy deserved an award for international friendship.

Kennedy had been expected to attend but cancelled the appearance. He gave a crowded schedule as his reason.

A spokesman for Internationaler, said the award was an attempt to recognize Kennedy for having done "a great deal to encourage foreign students" in his writings and public and private acts.

JAYCEES TO HOLD ELECTION

New officers of the Littlestown Junior Chamber of Commerce will be elected at the next regularly scheduled meeting on Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the chapter office at the Community Center. Nominations were made by the board of directors, as follows: President, Richard E. Selby; vice president, Clyde Bucher; state director, Paul F. Bolter; secretary-treasurer, Kenneth S. Ogg; directors, Clyde W. Crouse and J. Scott Zanger. Nominations will remain open until the election for each office. According to the by-laws, one third of the membership must be present for the election.

All local Jaycees, both regular and associate, have been invited to attend a dance in Harrisburg on March 23 at the New Cumberland Officers' Club. The dance is being sponsored by the Harrisburg Junior Chamber for members of Area IV. The dance will begin at 9 p.m. and tickets are $25 per person, to include a buffet table. Those who plan to attend should contact President Paul Bolter.

Three new members were installed and initiated at the meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Littlestown Aerie 2228, on Wednesday evening at the F.O.E. Home.

They were Ruth Rippen, Lillian Rehmyer and Arlene Fair. President Mrs. Rita Hoke, presided and heard reports from Ruth Crouse, secretary, Mrs. Ruth Fuhrman, and Mrs. Florence Sheely, trustee.

A district meeting will be held on Sunday afternoon in York, and those attending will leave at 1 p.m. from the F.O.E. Home.

A district birthday meeting will be held on April 21 at 2 p.m. in York. The general committee for the weekly public parties this month includes Mrs. Ethel Rimel, Mrs. Marjorie Schaefer and Mrs. Hoke. The "pig" was received by Mrs. Crouse. During the social hour, refreshments were served by Mrs. Mabel Rittase. The unit will meet again on Wednesday, Mar. 20, 8:30 p.m., when the hostess will be Mrs. Rittase and Mrs. Edna Olinger.

Tate Is Selected To Run For Mayor

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Democratic Campaign Policy Committee has selected Mayor James H. J. Tate as the organizational candidate in the May 21 primary.

Tate was endorsed by 36 of the 38-member committee Friday. Two members were absent. One was ill, the other was Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., who said other business kept him elsewhere.

Clark has said he would vote for Walter Phillips, candidate of the Americans for Democratic Action.

Tate, a former city council president, moved up to acting mayor when Richardson Dilworth quit to run unsuccessfully for governor.

Two Key Defense Bills Face House Call Monday

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bills that will let the armed services buy 60,000 missiles, 3,000 airplanes and 43 ships, and pave the way for Army induction of an estimated 90,000 men next year, face roll call votes in the House next week.

The two key defense measures—a four-year extension of the draft law and a record $15.8 billion military authorization bill—are due on the House floor Monday and Tuesday.

The House Armed Services Committee unanimously approved the draft bill, saying "its enactment is essential to our national security."

The induction authority runs out July 1. The bill would extend it until July 1, 1967.

The measure also would keep in effect a 13-year-old suspension of statutory ceilings on the size of the armed services. If that expired, the services would have to cut more than 600,000 men. "It is clear that this section of the law must be extended," the committee report said.

WILL DRAFT 90,000

The Army estimates it will draft about 90,000 men during each of the next four fiscal years. And the committee said that without the draft voluntary enlistments would drop far below their present levels.

The military authorization bill may stir controversy when it comes up Tuesday. That measure includes $363.7 million to step up development of the 2,000-mile-an-hour RS70 reconnaissance strike plane.

The administration wants to hold that program at its present level, which calls for construction of three of the speedy planes. The committee, headed by Rep. Carl Vinson, D-Ga., insists five RS70s should be built.

WANT EXPANSION

In its report on the authorization measure, the committee contended the RS70 program should be expanded so that the value of the plane as a weapon can be proved or disproved.

But five Democratic committee members who voted against the RS70 amendment filed a minority report on the bill, arguing, "Time and technology are clearly in the process of overtaking the manned strategic bomber as the keystone of our nuclear deterrent force."

The committee also tacked an additional $134 million onto the authorization bill to build two more nuclear-powered attack submarines. That will mean construction of eight killer subs under the fiscal 1964 authorization bill.

Kennan Ready For New Post:
George F. Kennan, technically still U. S. Ambassador to Moscow, said over the weekend he is still holding himself available for a new assignment in the Eisenhower administration.

Kennan, who has been living on his 235-acre Pennsylvania farm near East Berlin since he was declared persona non grata by Moscow, said otherwise he had no immediate plans.

"I have had no communication from the new administration about my future," Kennan said.

He said, in the event he is permitted to retire as a career diplomat, he would probably "go back to my work at Princeton."

By law, Kennan will retire three months after his resignation as ambassador to Moscow is accepted by President Eisenhower unless he is offered another position. As a former ambassador, the only positions open to him would be those of ambassador, minister-counselor, consul-general or a post in the Department of State.

There have been reports that Kennan, one of the free world's foremost experts on Russia, might be assigned to Switzerland or Yugoslavia.

Mrs. E. E. Wolf Dies Suddenly This Morning: Mrs. Dorothy Lowellen Wolf, 45, Harrisburg Rd., Gettysburg R. 4, wife of Edgar E. "Jim" Wolf, advertising representative of The Gettysburg Times, died suddenly at 7:15 this morning in the Warner Hospital, where she was removed by ambulance Monday night from her home.

An employee the past two years of the Bureau of Publications in the State government in Harrisburg, Mrs. Wolf had been in her usual health Monday and was at work during the day. She was taken ill suddenly at 8:45 p.m. and was removed to the hospital. Blood transfusions given in an attempt to save her life were unavailable.

Mrs. Wolf was a daughter of the late Olney and Daisy Poertner Lowellen of Columbus, Ind. She was born in Minneapolis, Minn., but had resided in Pennsylvania for the last 26 years. She also had resided in New York State, graduating from the Flushing, Long Island High School. She was a graduate of Shippensburg State Teachers College in 1927 and taught school in Adams and Cumberland Counties for five years.

Shetter Buys Mitchell Restaurant: Cloyd Shetter, 116 Chambersburg St., proprietor of the Shetter House, 48 Chambersburg St., and well-known area caterer, today announced that he has purchased the Mitchell building at the northwest corner of Lincoln Square and Carlisle St.

The purchase price was not revealed. Mr. Shetter said possession would be taken April 1. The purchase includes both the restaurant and the storeroom adjoining, now occupied by John H. Baschore, insurance broker and justice of the peace.

Mr. Shetter said he will continue the restaurant business. He opened the restaurant at this location for the late George Mitchell 31 years ago, on April 15, 1922, and continued to operate it for Mr. Mitchell for 11 years. Prior to that time he had been employed at the Philadelphia Quick Lunch in Harrisburg.

The Mitchell property was purchased from Mr. Mitchell's widow. Her daughter, Mrs. Violet Hill, has been manager of the business.

Today's Talk

THE SIGNIFICANT

I once read the review of three books in a New York newspaper in which the reviewer spoke of one of them as being "the most significant," yet "the least successful" and of "the least significant" yet "the most successful."

I haven't yet been able to get that description out of my mind. I have thought a great deal about it. How like life — the significant taking a back seat — neglected and overlooked — the insignificant taking the front of the procession!

The "best sellers" are not always the best books! Samuel Butler's "The Way of All Flesh" was not a first seller nor a best seller. It had to wait 15 years for its second edition! Arnold Bennett wrote one of the world's really great books in "The Old Wives Tale" — yet it got a cold reception at the start. George Gissing's lovely book "The Private Papers of Henry Ryecroft," also gained few readers at its publication, and the author himself remarked that many praised it — but few bought it!

Lincoln's immortal Gettysburg speech was laughed at; and newspapers both in England and the United States spoke of it as insignificant and unworthy of a President and of so great an occasion — yet how time has proved its deathless significance! The mob crucifies — but "The Muse of History" returns to gather up the sacred embers of the fire and the splinters of the cross, to place in memory's golden urn.

The seemingly insignificant all too often proves to be the truly significant.

Each day we pass by greatness. Often only in death does it loom in all its glorious significance! Applause is a tricky device, the acclaim of the multitude but a remembered echo upon the morrow. Idols crumble. Popularity is a whim, success a sneering skeleton! Character alone is significant and immortal.

SELF-REQUEST

These are the things I hope for me:

- That I may have the strength for duty;
- The ear to hear, the eye to see
- The song and handiwork of beauty;
- The faith for all that falls of sorrow
- And some new task to face tomorrow.

These are the joys I ask alone:

- The health to do a full day's labor;
- A few true friends to call my own;
- The good esteem of every neighbor
- And tempted by some great or slight thing
- Wisdom enough to choose the right thing.

These are the things for me I pray,

- Let naught in my supremest folly
- Harm any who can cross my way
- Lord, spare my mind from melancholy!
- And to each day as I shall live it
- Let me some touch of splendor give it.

A flash fire races through a school at Bellport, N.Y., on Long Island trapping scores of students and injuring 45, including one teacher.

44 STUDENTS INJURED IN FLASH BLAZE

By CHARLES WEST

BELLPORT, N.Y. (AP)—The kids behind were screaming and pushing. David Hassell said, "I was terrified."

From a bed crowded into a hospital corridor the 19-year-old senior described the panic of a flash fire that trapped scores of students on the second floor of the Bellport High School Friday.

The state fire commissioner was sent from Albany to help investigate the blaze.

Hassell was shoved through a window and broke both kneecaps landing on a paved area.

The smoke, flames and frantic plunges to earth injured 44 students and a teacher. Injured critically were Hassell, John Allers, 13, and fireman Richard Harrow. They, plus 34 others, were in Brookhaven Memorial Hospital early today. The other 7 were treated and released.

STARTED IN CEILING

"Thank God, no one is dead!" said Thomas Feeney, principal of the school in this eastern Long Island village of 2,500 about 75 miles east of New York City.

The fire started in the ceiling of the combination auditorium-gymnasium in the old wing—built in 1919—of the school, apparently from defective wiring, according to the first guesses of fire authorities.

Feeney, alerted by two girl students, saw it first as "a circle of flame about a yard in diameter in the ceiling of the gym."

As the alarm was being sounded, smoke and flames raced through the ventilating system. "When I turned around the fire was chasing me down the hall," Feeney said.

About 900 students and 65 teachers were in the building when the alarm sounded about 2 p.m.—15 minutes before school was to be dismissed.

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—More than 50 residents of Miami Springs scurried to City Hall to pay delinquent water bills Thursday.

"I never saw anything like it," one clerk said. "They came dashing in as fast as they could, with the money in their hands."

Then the truth was learned. A road grader accidentally cut the main water line into Miami Springs. Many residents through their water had been cut off because of nonpaid bills.

Pennsylvania Woman Will Mark 109 Or 113 Birthday

By W. A. SWARTWORTH

BELLE VERNON, Pa. (AP)—A diminutive Greek-born woman affectionately called "little grandma" by her great-grandchildren is believed to be Pennsylvania's oldest citizen.

Mrs. Calliope Patrikousis is at least 109, perhaps as old as 113, according to family estimates. No one knows for sure; no records of her birth exist.

However, the Pennsylvania Medical Society unofficially considers her the state's oldest resident.

Whatever the number, Mrs. Patrikousis will celebrate another birthday Sunday. (The date is purely arbitrary because the actual day of birth is not known.) There will be a small family gathering and a cake, but nothing really special is planned.

"QUIET AFFAIR"

"We've never made any fuss about grandma's birthday," remarks Mrs. Irene Retos of Monongahela, one of 10 grandchildren. "It's always been a quiet affair."

Mrs. Patrikousis lives with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Gialas, in a large, well-kept house in this Fayette County town.

Mrs. Gialas, 76, the youngest of six children, is the only one surviving. In addition to 10 grandchildren, Mrs. Patrikousis has 13 great-grandchildren and two great-great-grandchildren.

"She gets around very well," says Mrs. Retos. "She also is very independent, doesn't like to rely on anyone. Because she has a will of her own, we've got to watch her very closely. We're always afraid she might fall and hurt herself."

FAIRLY GOOD HEALTH

Mrs. Patrikousis' sight and hearing are failing, but otherwise her health is fairly good.

"She's only been ill once that I know of," Mrs. Retos relates. "That was about two years ago when she had a touch of pneumonia."

Americans Safe In Damascus

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reports reaching the State Department indicated Friday that all Americans in Damascus, capital of revolt-torn Syria, are safe.

Officials also said the department is being kept informed of developments in Syria by the embassy in Damascus.

The department said it had received no reports regarding the welfare of U.S. citizens who may be in Syria outside Damascus but it had no reason to believe that any of them were in difficulty.

Rusk Reports Reds Move Cuban Troops

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk said Friday some movement of Soviet troops out of Cuba is under way, and the Russians have shipping in position to withdraw several thousand men within the next week.

Rusk also told a news conference that the United States is "turning an important corner" in the long and costly fight against the Communist struggle to seize power in South Viet Nam.

He said the U.S.-supported South Viet Nam forces now "clearly have the initiative."

On a third major point of foreign policy, Rusk asserted bluntly that any nuclear test-ban agreement which may become possible with the Soviet Union will require the United States to take some risk.

SYRACUSE IS PICKED TO WIN MAT CROWN

By TOM SEPPY

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Powerful Syracuse, led by footballers Jim Nance and Gerry Everling, loomed as heavy favorite today to take its first Eastern Intercollegiate Wrestling Association championship in 13 years.

The Orangemen have 8 men entered in the semi-final round, while their closest rivals, Pittsburgh and Penn State, have 6 and 5 respectively.

Syracuse leads after the first two rounds with 18 points. Pitt and State have 14 apiece.

Defending champion Lehigh and dark horse Navy share fourth place with 12 points each.

LOSE 4 MATCHES

Lehigh, with only three men left—all of whom are defending champions—dropped four of their quarter-final matches Friday night. The engineers are led by Kirk Pendleton in the 157-pound class and last year's outstanding performer, Bill Merriam, at 123 pounds and Pat Smartt, 130 pounds.

Navy has four semi-finalists, including last year's champion Mike Harman in the 147-pound division. Defending heavyweight champion is Ed Scherer, one of two Rutgers' semifinalists.

Other schools with entries today are Army 4, Cornell 2, and Columbia, Penn and Temple 1 each.

The semifinal pairings were: 123-pound class: Merriam and Fred Crawford, Navy; Terry Halse, Syracuse, and Charles Bush, Cornell.

OTHER CLASSES

130-pound class: Bob Haney, Penn State, and Smartt; Mike Johnson, Pitt, and Bethel Greenhalgh, Syracuse.

137-pound class: Harmon and Frank O'Korn, Pitt; Jim Murrin, Syracuse, and Ed Winborn, Army.

147-pound class: Mike Natvig, Army, and John Carr, Pitt; George Edwards, Penn State, and Dick Slutsky, Syracuse.

157-pound class: Pendleton and George Reindner, Syracuse; Tin Gay, Pitt, and Dave Carey, Navy.

167-pound class: Pete Cummings, Cornell, and Martin Strayer, Penn State; Jim Harrison, Pitt and Gary Sirota, Syracuse.

177-pound class: Mike Gill, Penn State, and Ken Barr, Pitt; Ray Nickla, Army, and Gerry Franzen, Navy.

191-pound class: Everling and Steve Speers, Temple; Ed Pohlman, Penn State and Bob Rader, Rutgers.

Heavyweight class: Nance and Bruce Jacobson, Penn; Scherer and Lou Asack, Columbia.

POLICE BATTLE SYRIANS FEAR

FLOOD LOOTING ON RIVER FRONT

HARRISBURG (AP)—Special auxiliary police were patrolling the river front north of here today in an effort to halt looting in homes damaged by flood waters from the Juniata and Susquehanna.

State police issued a stern warning that persons caught removing possessions from homes in the area would be prosecuted to the full extent of the law.

ROAD CLOSED

"These people who prey on the misfortune of others are the most despicable kind of criminal," said Capt. Richard Gray, commanding officer of Troop A in Harrisburg.

Meanwhile, U.S. Route 22-322 was opened between Amity Hall and Newport, but remained closed from Clark's Ferry to Amity Hall. Northbound traffic was advised to cross the Susquehanna at Harrisburg and proceed on U.S. Route 11-15.

Police said the Clark's Ferry Bridge and Route 22-322 west to Amity Hall may be opened Sunday.

The roads were closed by massive chunks of ice left on both shores of the two rivers as a result of the annual thaw. Ice jams formed at several points backing up water that spilled into lowland areas.

Officials said many families were still unable to return to their homes. They were being housed temporarily with friends or at emergency quarters set up in churches and fire halls.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Union charged today that the United States was using poison gas against civilians in South Viet Nam.

The charge appeared in the official newspaper of the Soviet defense ministry, Krasnaya Zvezda (Red Star).

The newspaper said that so far the use of chemical weapons "is limited to one colonial war, but who can guarantee that the

Bloomsburg Knocks Mount From Title Play Despite Maloney's 35-Point Spree

Mt. St. Mary's, last year's NCAA small college basketball champion, was ousted in the first round of regional play Friday night at Albright College, Reading, when Bloomsburg State College put on a strong finish to take a 76-61 decision.

In the second game of the doubleheader "Bucky" Harris' Philadelphia Textile cagers pulled another upset by edging Hofstra 60-55.

Tonight Textile and Bloomsburg will clash in the eastern title game while Mt. St. Mary's opposes Hofstra in the preliminary consolation contest.

Dave Maloney, the lone Senior in the Mount lineup, turned in a terrific one-man performance in attempting to keep his team in contention by connecting for 35 points, the high-point production for the evening.

MALONEY ON STREAK

Late in the first half the score was tied at 20-20 and then Maloney went on a hot scoring spree with 15 straight points as the Mount held a narrow 38-37 lead at intermission. Ed Beck kept Bloomsburg in the game with 18 tallies during the first half. The score was deadlocked three times during the first 20 minutes.

Fran Curran netted a goal for Bloomsburg to open the second half and Maloney retaliated for the Mountaineers. A pair of goals by Beck pushed the Huskies into the lead again and from then on Bloomsburg slowly widened the gap.

The Mount overall record is now 13-11 while Bloomsburg is 17-3. Hofstra has season mark of 22-7 and one of its victories was a 75-74 decision over the Mountaineers at Emmitsburg last December 1. Philadelphia Textile carries a 20-2 mark in tonight's title affair.

COLTS ACQUIRE CATCHER FOR MEASLEY $77

By JACK STEVENSON

Associated Press Sports Writer
PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Houston's Colts have spent about $1.5 million in bonuses for young talent in stocking their neophyte organization with ball players, yet a $77 investment could prove one of their best.

That's what it cost to sign catcher John Bateman as a 19-year-old from Lawton, Okla., a youngster who had more faith in his talents than did the scouts.

Although he has only one season in organized baseball—at Modesto in the California League—Bateman has a chance to stock with the National League Colts.

"Too fat," was the general verdict when Bateman finished high school at 245 pounds in 1960 after Lawton won the Oklahoma state baseball championship in 1959 and finished second in 1960.

PAYS OWN WAY

So the youngster, with no ambitions, received no offers for the job he wanted so badly. For two years he played semipro and labored as a construction worker to save money. Then he wrote letters offering to pay his way to tryout camps. Only one to Colt scout Red Connor at Weslaco, Tex., brought results.

By that time, Bateman had taken off 15 pounds. Connor referred the letter to Red Murf, scout at Texas City, who invited the big youngster to a 3-day tryouts.

He received the $77 as expenses for himself, his brother and father who had come to watch. If he hadn't made the grade, the Batemans would have paid the expenses.

PRINCETON SPANKS YALE FOR CROWN

By BOB GREEN

Associated Press Sports Writer

Princeton's deadpan version of the Captain and the Kids—basketball variety, not the comic characters—is the reason the Tigers today hold the Ivy League championship and a spot in the NCAA Regional Tournament.

The captain is the Tiger team leader, soft-spoken backcourt ace Art Hyland. The kid is 1-year-old sophomore whiz Bill Bradley. Together they contributed 45 points in Princeton's 65-53 victory over Yale Friday night in a playoff game for the Ivy League title.

Tennessee Tech also gained the NCAA regionals, beating Morehead, Ky., 80-68 in a playoff at Bowling Green, Ky.

The two teams shared the Ohio Valley regular season title.

STANFORD LOSES

Stanford, however, was turned back in its bid to wrap up the Big Six title, dropping a 64-54 decision at UCLA. Stanford now holds a one game lead over the Bruins, with each scheduled to close its regular season tonight.

The three other spots in the 25-team NCAA tourney field also are scheduled to be decided Saturday when champions are picked in the Big Ten, Big Eight and West Coast Athletic Conference.

Tourney action opens the same night with a doubleheader at Lubbock, Tex. Texas, 18-6, plays Texas Western, 1-6, and Colorado State, 13-4, goes against Oklahoma City, 17-, with the winners advancing to the Midwest semifinals in Lawrence, Kan. next weekend.

OTHER CLASHES

Xavier of Ohio and St. Bonaventure advanced to the finals of the National Catholic College Tournament at Louisville, Ky. with first round victors Friday. Xavier blasted Creighton 80-67 and St. Bonaventure edged Regis 76-75.

Wittenberg, the Associated Press national champion small college team, beat Youngstown, Ohio, 38-31 and advanced in the NCAA College Division Tournament, but defending champion Mount St. Mary's of Maryland lost to Bloomsburg, Pa., 76-61 in a first round game.

Also advancing after first round victories were Tennessee State, Oglethorpe, Ga., Philadelphia, Textile, South Carolina State, Springfield, Mass., Northeastern, Mass., Evansville, Ind., Washington, Mo., Lamar Tech, Tex., Southern Illinois, Nebraska Wesleyan, South Dakota State, Chapman, Calif., and Fresno State.

PICK YANKEES AND DODGERS TO WIN TITLES

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer

The New York Yankees and the Los Angeles Dodgers — not the San Francisco Giants — will meet in the 1963 World Series if the preseason odds on the major league baseball pennant races stand up.

The rundown on the clubs in both the American and National leagues is of interest since the annual spring exhibition season opens today with 7 games in Florida, 2 in Arizona and one in California.

The preseason odds as announced Friday in Las Vegas, where betting is legal, make the Yankees odds-on at 2-4 to win another AL pennant. In the NL the champion Giants are the second choice at 5-4 to win the Dodgers, despite losing out in a playoff last season to the Giants, are favored 2-4 to 1.

HOW THEY SHOW

Here is a complete rundown listing the finish and record of each club last year and the preseason 1963 odds:

AMERICAN LEAGUE
1. New York 96-66, odds 2-4 to 5.
2. Minnesota 91-71, 15-1.
3. Los Angeles 86-76, 20-1.
4. Detroit 85-76, 15-1.
5. Chicago 85-77, 25-1.
6. Cleveland 80-82, 25-1.
7. Baltimore 77-85, 20-1.
8. Boston 76-84, 50-1.
9. Kansas City 72-90, 500-1.
10. Washington 60-101, 500-1.

NATIONAL LEAGUE
1. San Francisco 103-62, 5-2.
2. Los Angeles 102-63, 2-1.
3. Cincinnati 98-64, 6-1.
4. Pittsburgh 93-68, 8-1.
5. Milwaukee 86-76, 10-1.
6. St. Louis 84-78, 6-1.
7. Philadelphia 81-80, 50-1.
8. Houston 64-96, 1,000-1.
9. Chicago 59-103, 1,000-1.
10. New York 40-120, 1,000-1.

40 SKIERS TO COMPETE FOR OLYMPIC TEAM

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN

Associated Press Sports Writer

ISHPEMING, Mich. (AP)—Some 40 of the nation's best ski jumpers take off at Suicide Hill today in opening trials to select a team for the 1964 Olympic Winter Games at Innsbruck, Austria.

Five judges will award points on form and distance, with four jumpers qualifying for the six-man U.S. squad by Sunday night. Two of the best three jumps each day by the contestants will count in the scoring.

Already named to the team by Coach Art Tople are a pair of 22-year-old stars who are considered the best prospects for an Olympic gold medal ever produced by the United States.

SETS U.S. RECORD

They are John Balfanz of Minneapolis, who finished fourth against competitors from 11 nations in the Austrian-German series this winter, and Gene Kotlarek, a senior at the University of Minnesota, Duluth Branch.

Kotlarek, who headed the 1960 U.S. Olympic team but fell and ruined his chances in the Winter Games that year at Squaw Valley, Calif., set an American distance record of 322 feet while winning the national title at Steamboat Springs, Colo., last month.

Although named automatically Friday to the American team, both Balfanz and Kotlarek will compete in the trials.

Other favorites in the field are two 1960 Olympic team members, Ansten Samuelstuen of Boulder, Colo., and Butch Wedin of Iron Mountain, Mich.

HEAVIES CLASH ON TV TONIGHT

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—

The fourth- and sixth-ranked heavyweights in the World Boxing Association ratings, both knockout specialists, meet tonight in a 10-round nationally televised fight.

Cleveland Williams, the No. 4 man fighting out of Houston, Tex., faces young Billy Daniels of New York, the No. 6 heavyweight, in Miami Beach Convention Hall.

Williams, 29, has knocked out 45 foes in 59 fights, lost three by knockouts and one by a decision. He fought one draw and won once through disqualification.

Daniels, 26, has fought only 19 times, gaining 11 knockouts and 7 decisions. He was knocked out once, by Cassius Clay in seven rounds.

The fight will be scored on the 10-point system, with the winner of each round getting 10 points and the loser nine or less. It is scheduled for 10 p.m., EST, and will be telecast to a nationwide audience by the American Broadcasting Co.

RAIDERS DROP FIRST ROUND TOURNEY GAME

The St. Francis Xavier School cagers were edged in their first round game of the York CYO invitation double elimination tournament Friday evening by St. Rose of York 40-34.

The Red Raiders ran into a taller opponent and were forced into committing many fouls. Phil Wisotzky and John Flynn went out on fouls midway in the last period and their absence hurt the comeback effort of the Raiders.

St. Rose gained an 8-5 lead in the first period and was in front 21-16 at half time. Encountering shooting trouble in the third frame, the Raiders fell behind 31-21 but spurted in the last quarter to pull within 35-32 before losing Wisotzky and Flynn.

Wisotzky landed 13 points for the Raiders and Rich Smith hit for 19 for St. Rose.

ANNUNCIATION WINS

In other games Friday Annunciation of McSherrystown eliminated St. Joseph's, York, defending tournament champions, 42-25, and St. Patrick's, York, downed St. Joseph's, Hanover, 39-25. This morning at 1 o'clock St. Francis met St. Mary's, York, and at 11 St. Rose, York, tangled with Steelton St. James.

The tourney consolation game will be staged Sunday at 2 p.m. followed by the title game at 4 o'clock.

County Agent Gives Tips On Planting Of Seedlings

By FRANK S. ZETTLE
Adams County Farm Agent

Tree seedlings must be kept moist from the time they leave the nursery until they are planted. A good root system is essential to successful planting and, unless care is taken, roots dry out very rapidly and are injured.

With an upsurge of tree planting to encourage re-building of idle land, many landowners without previous experience will be planting trees this spring. These new foresters need to be aware that seedlings should be watered immediately when they arrive from the nursery and planted as soon as possible. Stored in a cool place and kept moist, they will remain in good condition for several days.

Seedlings that must be kept for more than four or five days should be "heeled in" in moist soil. To do this, dig an open A-shaped trench. Then open the bundle of trees and spread the roots out along one side of the trench. Fill in with soil so all roots are covered and drench with water. Stamp down the soil for a firm covering and keep moist until planting.

On planting day, be sure to keep the roots covered with a damp material like wet moss, or keep them submerged in a puddle or bucket. Never allow the roots to be exposed to sun or wind, even for five minutes.

HARDWARE CAN KILL

No dairyman feeds scrap iron to his cows on purpose but it's amazing how many do it accidentally.

And a tiny piece of wire or broken nail thrown in the wrong place can cost the dairyman a cow.

Cows don't chew their food thoroughly when they eat it and often swallow nails, screws, pieces of wire, pins or other bits of metal along with what they eat. These pieces usually wind up in the second stomach, the honeycomb, often referred to as the "hardware bucket."

These sharp objects may pierce the stomach wall and cause a painful injury—even work their way to the heart and kill the animal. A continuous "pick-up" is recommended to keep all small metal objects out of cows' reach.

Don't mend a stanchion with wire. If you miss a nail when you have to fix something in the feed alley, find it before you go on to the next job.

Be sure to account for all baling wire from hay, straw and shavings used in the cow barn. Don't chop the wire but unwind it. Outlaw the steel brush around the feed department.

Finally, offer the hired hands a few words of advice on the subject and set a good example.

PROBLEM COWS

Dairymen striving to meet demands for more milk during the fall months have bred most of their cows during the past three or four months. Unfortunately, many of these cows have not conceived promptly and will freshen too late next fall to take full advantage of higher milk prices.

Some of these delays in conception cannot be avoided, at least with our present knowledge. However, many of the long delays in freshening can be shortened by following a regular practice of having all cows examined by a veterinarian about 60 days after breeding. It isn't possible to tell whether a cow is settled by the way she looks or acts during the few months following breeding.

If these pregnancy checks indicate that all of the cows are settled, consider yourself very fortunate. However, it's a safe bet that one or more cows in typical herds will need treatment. Prompt diagnosis and treatment usually enables these cows to conceive without further delay. By spotting just one of the "problem" cows each year, you can save enough in milk production to more than pay the annual veterinarian fees.

On planting day, be sure to keep the roots covered with a damp material like wet moss, or keep them submerged in a puddle or bucket. Never allow the roots to be exposed to sun or wind, even for five minutes.

SEGREGATION ORDINANCES ARE REPEALED

ALBANY, Ga. (AP)—This southwest Georgia city has repealed segregation ordinances.

There was some bewilderment in the white community over the city commission's action. Negro leaders pondered the import of the seven-member commission's unexpected repeal Wednesday of every segregation ordinance on the books.

"The reason given by the commission was rather obscure," said U.S. Page, executive secretary of the Albany Movement, which promoted anti-segregation demonstrations that landed hundreds of Negroes in jail last summer.

"My attitude is that if what they're doing is in good faith, they certainly will have the utmost cooperation from us," said Page. "If it's not in good faith, it will evidence itself. We will find out if it's in good faith."

BOLSTERS POSITION

The commission said repealing the segregation ordinances will bolster the city's legal position in racial issues.

"In our view this will strengthen rather than weaken the existing social patterns of racial segregation," a spokesman said.

Why did the move come when it did?

"It was the first time the commission had been out under pressure and duress," City Manager Stephen A. Roos said.

The governing body refused repeatedly last year to negotiate racial problems, contending it would not act under duress—which it blamed on Negroes who were conducting demonstrations and other activities.

In a companion action, the commission voted 4-3 to authorize the City Library Board to reopen Carnegie Library, a white facility shut down last Aug. 11 because of integration attempts.

The 30-day trial reopening was made conditional upon the library operating only on a check-out basis with no reading rooms or lounging in the library.

Parks and swimming pools may never be reopened, officials said.

Four members of county 4-H Clubs are scheduled to visit various clubs to give the members details on "The ABC's of Demonstrations" to encourage better presentations by the members of demonstrations of their work. The group includes Donald Bair, Littlestown R. 2, Adams County Baby Beef Club; James Rohrbach, Littlestown R. 2, Southern Adams Agriculture Club; Barbara Johnson, Gettysburg R. 1, Barlow Home Economics and Mt. Joy Agriculture Clubs, and Barbara Main, Arendtsville, Arendtsville Home Economics Club.

Speculate On Improved Relations Between Reds And Pope John's Church

By GERALD MILLER

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The meeting between Premier Khrushchev's son-in-law and Pope John XXIII sparked speculation today that the Soviet Union and the Roman Catholic Church may be on the threshold of a major breakthrough to friendlier relations.

Signs of a change between the Kremlin and the Vatican have been evident for months.

The 18-minute private audience which Pope John granted Alexei Adzhubei Thursday was the first face to face meeting in history of a Roman Catholic ruler and a leading figure from the Soviet Union.

CHIEF EDITOR

Besides his family connection with Premier Khrushchev, Adzhubei, 39, is chief editor of Izvestia, the Soviet government newspaper.

The initiative for the meeting came from the Soviet side. Adzhubei and Khrushchev's daughter, Rada, are touring Italy. Vatican officials said the couple asked to see the Pope. Apparently Pope John welcomed the opportunity.

There was no suggestion that communism is coming to terms with the church. Rather, Khrushchev appears ready to try for co-existence with Catholicism.

MAJOR OVERTURE

A major overture came from the Soviets last October. The Russian Orthodox Church accepted the Vatican's invitation to send observers to the Vatican Ecumenical Council. Last month Moscow released a Ukrainian Catholic archbishop held in prison for 18 years.

Pope John's meeting with Adzhubei coincided with reports that some kind of diplomatic or consular tie might be in the making between the Vatican and Moscow. Prior to his meeting with Pope John, Adzhubei said he thought a Vatican consulate in the Soviet Union would be a good idea.

The Adzhubei audience also aroused speculation about freedom for Hungary's Josef Cardinal Mindszenty.

The Hungarian primate has been living at the U.S. Legation in Budapest since the 1956 anti-Soviet Hungarian revolt. He reportedly refuses to leave Hungary.

LOS ANGELES' WATTS TOWER WORK OF ART

By DIAL TORGERSO

LOS ANGELES (AP)—In Watts, considered by some the city's suburb least likely to succeed, there stand seven towers.

Amid the bleak landscape of Los Angeles' industrial South Side, they rise glistering into the sky—frameworks of welded steel inlaid with anything that will reflect light: broken pottery, beer bottles, sea shells, bottle caps, bits of tile, chunks of junk.

They call them the Watts towers. What are they?

That very question has stirred a loftier tower—that of Los Angeles City Hall—for four years.

And today, thanks to a municipal ruling, we know what they are: A work of art. A historic cultural monument.

TO BE PRESERVED

The ruling means they will be permanently preserved.

The towers were built by an Italian immigrant in a protest against the ugliness of the new world in which he made his home. His name is Sam Rodia. Today, in his 80s, he lives in Martinez, Calif., caring little of the fate of the soaring spires he built.

"Let's face it," said Kenneth Ross, general manager of the Municipal Art Department, "Watts is a terrible neighborhood. And it wasn't much better when Rodia moved there."

A tilesetter, Rodia started building the towers in 1921. One reached 104 feet, another 55. Short-

Making Survey Of Pennsylvania Soils

State Conservationist Ivan McKeever of the U.S. Soil Conservation Service reported today at Harrisburg that 13.5 million acres of the state's land have been surveyed to determine its suitable uses. The soil survey, which is underway in 41 counties, McKeever said, is used by planning commissions, agricultural workers, farmers and land developers.

The state conservationist said that over 1,000 different kinds of soil have been located in the commonwealth. Their use for urban development, crop production and industrial sites varies because many soils differ in their makeup.

In 1962, 1.1 million acres of land were mapped by the Soil Conservation Service. Eighteen counties now have been completely surveyed and the remaining counties are scheduled for completion within the next 15 years, McKeever said.

The modern soil survey is made by trained soil scientists who examine the soil in the field and locate the different types on aerial photographs. Laboratory studies provide the chemical and physical information about the soil. This information is included in the reports which are prepared by the county.

er ones nestle at their base. Art lovers banded together to save the towers, two Hollywood men bought them—for about $3,000—and deeded them to a nonprofit group dedicated to their preservation.

Thursday the city's Cultural Heritage Board, which rules on which landmarks should be saved, officially declared the towers a cultural monument.

"It is quite a victory," said Ross. "These towers, I believe, are the only beautiful things in Watts."

John Lucas produced an unbeaten Penn State cross-country team in his first campaign as head coach last fall.

News Briefs

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (AP)—Mrs. Alberta B. Gallatin, 36, of Daristown, Pa., has died of burns suffered last Jan. 29 in fire that had killed five of her children.

Mrs. Gallatin died Friday in the West Virginia University Medical Center where she had been hospitalized since a coal furnace exploded in the family's two story frame home.

Another son, Gary Ray Gallatin, 16, also was burned in the fire but has recovered.

The father, Leland, was working when the fire broke out.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Delia Carkuff of nearby Kingston observed her 100th birthday today with this philosophy: Stay cool and don't let things bother you. She was presented with a plaque by the Luzerne County Medical Society symbolizing her membership in the society's 100-year-old club.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Thikol Corp. of Bristol, Pa., was awarded a $645,500 contract by the Army Friday for the loading of Pershing missiles. The work will be done at the Longhorn Ordnance Works in Marshall, Tex.

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—Authorities are investigating the death of a man identified from papers as Harry Thomas Marx, 74, of Butler, Pa. Police said he had been dead at least three weeks when he was found Friday near the city dump. He apparently did not die where he was found, officers said. A wrist watch was still on an arm and he had a bus ticket from Butler to St. Petersburg, Fla., and about $200, mostly in traveler's checks.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A $101,500 grant to New Castle, Pa., to aid in the replacement of curbing has been approved by the Housing and Home Finance Agency. Rep. Frank M. Clark, D-Pa., reported Friday.

SEEK RELEASE OF CARDINAL

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Vatican is reportedly trying to get a safe conduct pass from Hungary for Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Hungarian Catholic primate who has said that he will never leave his country, even if staying means life in confinement.

Three weeks short of 71, Mindszenty was given haven in the U.S. Legation in Budapest since the Russians crushed the 1956 Hungarian revolt. The government has threatened to imprison him again if he sets foot outside the legation.

Sources here said Friday the Vatican is trying to get Mindszenty a safe conduct pass to Rome, where a permanent post would be provided for him.

LADYBUGS ARE STIRRING FUSS IN TWO STATES

YUBA CITY, Calif. (AP)—West Coast ladybugs don't know it, but they're the center of a blossoming interstate war.

It's this way:

Ladybugs are death on the wing to pestiferous bugs—aphids, mealy bugs, fruit scale, bollworms, leaf-worms, leaf hoppers, flea hoppers, corn ear worms—and other bugs that plague farmers.

In California, there are three ladybug entrepreneurs, one in Yuba City, and one each in nearby Gridley and Auburn. They catch the bugs and ship them out of state.

The State of Washington says Californians are catching ladybugs in Washington and they want it stopped. In fact, a ladybug bill sponsored by Sen. Dewey Donohue, a cattleman, passed the State Senate in Olympia by a vote of 39-1 Wednesday.

CALLED A CRIME

Donohue's bill would make it a crime to ship ladybugs out of Washington.

"Us farmers consider ladybugs real friendly little fellows . . . if those California operators continue to take our ladybugs we'll have to start using more chemical pesticides—expensive and harmful to humans," Donohue said.

In Gridley, Marcella Nelson of Ladybug Sales, Inc., retorted, "That bill doesn't bother us any. Because no one except a small time pirate trying to start up in business would ever go to Washington to collect ladybugs."

$8 A GALLON

"I can guarantee that California ladybugs are the only ones we ship—and I ought to know. I control the whole ladybug market. I know where every bug comes from and where they all go to."

Miss Nelson, Harry Mantyla of the California Bug Co. in Auburn and Louis Schnoor of Yuba City say they range California's Sierra from the Oregon border to south of Yosemite National Park in search of the little orange-winged beetles.

They say they gather and ship 15,000 gallons, 100,000 ladybugs to the gallon, for a total of 1.5 billion bugs each year. The price varies from $2 a pint to $8 a gallon.

LONDON (AP)—Britain has accused Soviet intelligence agents of trying to blackmail another British Embassy employee in Moscow into spying.

A Foreign Office spokesman said the agents approached Ivor Rowse, 47, the embassy transport officer, Feb. 23 and threatened to disclose an alleged incident in his private life unless he spied for the Soviets.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Congo government has accused Ghana of "flagrant interference" in seeking a Security Council investigation into the two-year-old murder of former Congolese Premier Patrice Lumumba.

The United States, France and Britain are said to feel that a Congo debate would give the Soviet Union a forum to press again for withdrawal of the U.N. Command from the Congo.

Let's Look At The Record

DIPLOMATIC DEFEAT
Red China's Agreement With Pakistan
Is A Blow To Harriman's Diplomacy

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.
 President Wisconsin State College, Superior

LAST SATURDAY China signed a frontier agreement with Pakistan. America has been so concerned with Cuba, it attracted little attention.

China is quietly making substantial gains in her Himalayan frontier expansion program at the expense of India — and Pakistan, but the latter is unwilling to admit it even to herself.

At the moment, it is a quiet, cozy game. The sound and fury will most likely be coming out of India before the leaves turn next autumn.

FOR CHINA it is a double thrust operation.

The spear-head push that created all the shouting and sent India's Nehru into handwringing frustrations last autumn was out of the high Tibetan plateau into the Brahmaputra River Valley, threatening the heart of the fertile and productive Indian state of Assam.

Why the Chinese broke off while they were winning so easily and withdrew to the foot of the mountains is one of the unanswered questions. It now appears to have been a bid for a diplomatic respite while the situation was being felt out at the point of the other thrust in the territorial grab game.

THE OTHER THRUST had been hot news a year earlier.

It had become quiescent and is a thousand miles northwest of Assam. It is aimed westward with its spearhead at the point where the Indian state of Kashmir ceases to have a boundary with China and where the Pakistanian boundary with China begins.

In this, Red China is playing the oldest trick in the game of land grabbing diplomacy. It normally works extremely well when the two threatened neighbors are bitterly mad at one another.

INDIA and Pakistan fit this picture quite neatly. The entire state of Kashmir has been a bone of contention since the day England called her viceroy home and told the Hindus and Moslems of Kipling's India that they were thereafter on their own.

They immediately split into Indian (Hindu) and Pakistanian (Moslem) confederacies of states and began quarreling over the rich state of Kashmir. It should have gone to Pakistan, but India's Nehru, a fake pacifist, grabbed it by force and began hazing out the native Moslems.

The hatreds thus generated between the Pakistanians and the Indians now exceed the fears and suspicions either might have of their more dangerous Communist neighbor, Red China.

Three months ago, ex-Governor Harriman was chief of a mission to India and Pakistan. The high, diplomatic purpose was patching up the Kashmir quarrel, and thereby creating a solid South Asian front against Chinese ambitions.

HARRIMAN accomplished nothing, notwithstanding smooth headlines that read like unsecured promissory notes. Pakistan greeted him with a hot protest that America was providing India with arms that could be used against Pakistan, a solid U.S. ally since freedom.

That Pakistan already had American arms and equipment for 12 complete divisions with air units and supporting troops that might some day be used against India did not seem relevant to the Pakistanians.

Mr. Harriman met the protest by giving America's promise no American arms given to India could be used against an ally. Pakistan remained unimpressed.

Meanwhile, India is begging America for more and more arms as a gift to resist communism. At the same time she is trying to buy airplanes from Russia to resist Chinese communism.

THE AGREEMENT between Pakistan and China, signed in Peking last Saturday, is a blow to India. Nehru's Foreign Office filed a protest within hours. In the agreement the Pakistanians say they gave up claims to 2,050 square miles of worthless mountains for 1,350 square miles of fertile valley land, at the same time retaining control of six of the seven strategic mountain passes.

India's protest holds that some of the lands Pakistan and China are swapping are a part of the Indian state of Kashmir.

A QUESTION might well be asked as to where America fits into this picture and to what extent the Peking agreement is a diplomatic defeat for the United States.

That it is a major reverse cannot be denied. Pakistan is a charter member of the SEATO Pact against Asian Communism.

It was for this reason that U.S. gave her the equipment for her Army, the largest and best in South Asia — much better than India is going to have by this spring, or summer, when China will most likely strike again at Assam.

The Pakistan-China agreement is an entering wedge for the ultimate destruction of SEATO. The day is rapidly approaching when America must make up her mind between India and Pakistan. Mr. Harriman, now promoted to higher rank in the State Department, cannot carry water on both shoulders forever.

ALESSANDRONI TO TESTIFY IN SCANDAL QUIZ

HARRISBURG (AP) — Atty. Gen. Walter E. Alessandrini says he will testify before the grand jury investigating alleged scandals in Philadelphia city government.

He emphasized, however, his appearance will be voluntary and warned Philadelphia Dist. Atty. James C. Crumlish that as attorney general he is the chief law enforcement officer of the commonwealth.

The prerogatives of that office, Alessandrini said, invest him with the authority to supplement and supervise the grand jury in any investigation, and that his powers of investigation may be supplementary to or merged with those of the grand jury.

ASKED TO TESTIFY

The attorney general's statement was contained in reply to a letter from Crumlish inviting Alessandrini to testify at grand jury hearing next Monday.

Crumlish had contended Alessandrini possessed information turned over to him by W. Wilson White, special prosecutor of a grand jury probe that was ruled illegal by the state Supreme Court.

"Normally, I would have declined to appear in order to keep intact the rules of separation of powers between the court, grand jury, district attorney and attorney general," he said. "To do so in this case, however, following your irresponsible public statements might create an appearance to the grand jury and the public that this was evidence of a lack of cooperation or that I had something sinister to conceal. Therefore, under the circumstances and in the public interest, I advise you and the grand jury that I have no intention of asserting this right."

2 ARE ACCUSED

"In accordance with this view, I shall be glad to appear before the grand jury to render whatever aid I can possibly give them consistent with my obligations and prerogatives as attorney general."

Meanwhile, in Philadelphia, Crumlish charged Alessandrini and Gov. Scranton with suppressing the evidence turned over by White.

Crumlish said also he was astounded by recent administration criticism of his handling of the investigation.

"The mutterings that have come out of Harrisburg," Crumlish said,

Back-To-Work Pact Reached In 91-Day N.Y. Paper Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—Representatives of publishers and striking printers agreed Friday on a new contract, clearing the way for an end to New York's 91-day-old newspaper shutdown.

Key provisions of the pact are an increase in wages over a two-year period, plus a reduction in hours the second year, for a total package of $12.63.

Cost of the strike within the industry has been estimated in excess of $100 million.

There was no indication how soon eight closed newspapers, which before the strike printed 5 1/2 million copies a day, might resume publication.

APPROVAL SEEN

The agreement is subject to union ratification, but Mayor Robert F. Wagner said he assumed it would be ratified in view of its unanimous endorsement by local and international officers of the International Typographical Union, AFL-CIO, and by the publishers. Wagner made the announcement at 6:30 a.m. He had proposed the settlement shortly after midnight.

"This means that the shutdown involving the printers will end as soon as the union completes negotiations of certain so-called clean-up issues and ratifies the agreement," said Wagner.

"In addition," he said, "negotiations involving other unions, two of whom are still on strike, will likewise have to be completed."

Still on strike are unions representing stereotypers and mailers. The shutdown deprived New

"only reflect an attitude of indecision and fear of responsibility. The state has absolutely no desire to try to solve the problems that are alleged to exist in Philadelphia because when a dragon dies the white knights lose their mythical enemy."

The district attorney said he would welcome help from the governor, but if he doesn't help, "he should refrain from uninformed criticism."

He added, "If he is afraid to help me, the public at least expects that he will not hinder this effort of our citizens by hiding evidence and justifying his actions with an umbrella of political clichés."

Berg, of Melbourne, Fla., addressed the southeastern jurisdictional convocation of the Methodist Church in Memphis, Tenn. Bishop John Owen Smith, also addressing the convocation in Memphis, said communism is losing ground around the world as a faith, philosophy and way of life.

NIXON RAPS KENNEDY ON PAAR TV SHOW

NEW YORK (AP)—Richard M. Nixon has fired a salvo at the Kennedy administration for lack of air cover in the abortive 1961 Cuban invasion.

The former vice president, in a taped television show, said he "could not imagine" former President Dwight D. Eisenhower not providing such air cover. Nixon advocated an oil blockade of Cuba.

Saying President Kennedy has been subjected to some unfair criticism on the invasion, Nixon added: "I think he was wrong in another respect. I think he was wrong, once we committed our power, in not seeing it through and finishing the job."

"And when the suggestion is made that President Eisenhower may or may not have planned air cover, I would only suggest this: I cannot imagine the general, who planned the greatest invasion in history, the invasion of Normandy, allowing those 1,500 brave Cubans to go in the Bay of Pigs there without having first destroyed the enemy air power or providing air cover."

TAPED PROGRAM

Nixon's appearance on the Jack Paar show was taped last Sunday in New York for showing Friday on NBC-TV. But the program was shown first Thursday night on CTV in Toronto, a Canadian commercial network.

Nixon called for "a political, diplomatic, economic and military quarantine of Cuba, of communism in Cuba."

Newsday, a Long Island daily newspaper, reported Thursday that last Tuesday during an off-the-record speech at Garden City, N.Y., Nixon advocated an oil blockade of Cuba in recommending a four-point U.S. policy toward Cuba. His four points: removal of all Russian troops, on-site inspection of missile installations, an end to foreign aid to nations which trade with Cuba and a partial blockade to stop all oil shipments to the island.

Nixon repeated those assertions on the television program.

SUPPORTS STRENGTH

Republicans who have criticized the President about Cuba "will join in a bipartisan support of any strong action that President Kennedy will take to remove the Communist cancer," Nixon said.

He referred to the possibility of strong U.S. action in Cuba angering some neutral nations.

"My answer is this: That we've got to run American foreign policy from the standpoint of the United States of America and the defense of freedom throughout the world, and we shouldn't take a vote of popularity of the neutrals and let the other nations of the world let our policy be only what the weak and timid will approve," he said.

HOLDS NEWS MEET

Nixon, in Chicago on Thursday, held his first news conference since immediately after his November defeat in California's gubernatorial election.

Nixon told the newsmen he plans a number of speaking appearances next fall and said he "will support and campaign enthusiastically for the Republican candidate, whoever he may be."

Nixon listed the leading candidates for the GOP presidential nomination as New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton, and Michigan Gov. George Romney.

"In my view one of the four will be nominated. Rockefeller is the front runner today—the polls show that."

When Paar asked Nixon, "Can Kennedy be defeated in '64?" He replied: "Which Kennedy?"

News Briefs

TOKYO (AP)—Red China said today it will not use force to take the colonies of Hong Kong and Macao but will get them by peaceful negotiations when "conditions are ripe." It rapped Soviet Premier Khrushchev for raising the issue.

The Peking People's Daily said Red China still is determined to "liberate" Formosa, but is banking on the U.S.-Chinese ambassadorial talks in Warsaw, Poland, to effect withdrawal of U.S. troops from the Nationalist-held island.

WARSAW, Poland (AP)—The West German government will open its first permanent mission in Poland under a new trade agreement with the Polish government.

Because West Germany has diplomatic relations with no members of the Soviet bloc except the Soviet Union, the agreement to open the office is viewed as a key development in West Germany's relations with Communist Eastern Europe.

Under the three-year trade pact, Germany will import mostly meat and other foods and export mainly iron, steel and nonferrous metals.

lanta, Ga., added:

"Communism as a philosophy has worn thinner than we think, as millions of people do not want two or three determining right from wrong."

City Seeks Bond Support For $40 Million Transit System For Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The Allegheny County Port Authority takes a giant step forward next Tuesday in its three-year drive toward converting area transportation into a mass transit system.

At that time the authority will ask county commissioners for authorization to issue approximately $40 million in bonds for the acquisition of at least 31 transit lines.

The authority has secured options from 30 of those lines. The 31st is the Pittsburgh Railways Co., which carries as many passengers each day as all of the others combined.

"We have been negotiating intensively for the past six months with Pittsburgh Railways, but our talks go back three years," said Col. Edward H. Gallup, assistant executive director of the authority.

REPORTS PROGRESS

"Progress definitely has been made, but no agreement has been reached. However, we are much closer to an agreement now than we were six months ago."

"If we can't come to an agreement on what is a fair price, we'll have to go to condemnation. We have the right of condemnation by eminent domain through the acts of 1956 and 1959."

The acts Gallup referred to were passed by the state legislature and created the Port Authority. The 1956 bill gave the authority the task of increasing traffic on area waters.

An amendment late in 1959 extended its responsibility into the land transportation field.

With the Pittsburgh Railways representing a major roadblock, the authority would like to reach an agreement as quickly as possible.

Legal efforts arising from condemnation could be extremely time consuming, Gallup noted.

"That's why we're hoping that we'll reach an agreement within the next 10 days or so," he said.

DECLINES PRICE

Gallup declined to disclose the price around which the two sides are negotiating. It is included, though, in the $40 million.

That figure, Gallup said, isn't exact, but he added that the total is in that neighborhood. The sum also includes funds to purchase new equipment, including 150 buses.

Gallup said all trolley cars, which now make up most of the Pittsburgh Railways system, will be eventually eliminated in a period of five to 10 years.

A mass transit feasibility study was started nearly three years ago for the authority by the New York firm of Coverdale & Colpitts.

In December, 1961, the company reported to the commissioners that the cost of converting to a mass transit system would be some $31.8 million.

The commissioners asked the authority to continue the study.

instructing it to negotiate with the firms involved and setting definite sale prices.

Col. Robert C. Downie headed the authority as board chairman and executive director until he retired at the beginning of last year. The chairman now is Judge Loran L. Lewis while the executive director is Col. Harley L. Swift.

The authority has three phases of operation. The first, and most immediate, is the acquisition of existing lines and operation of the system. More long range phases are developing and a rapid transit line and developing with the railroads an improved commuter service system.

Gallup explained that the law says the county can take over a transportation firm if at least 80 per cent of its passenger revenue miles come in the county.

Other bus lines operate in the county but not enough to qualify for purchase.

Three inclines originally were included in the transit plan, but only one appears to be headed for inclusion in the system. One is closed down at the order of the Public Utility Commission, and another may go out of business if Pittsburgh Railways wins approval of a plan submitted to the PUC.

Gallup said the third incline, the Monongahela Incline, "is the only one of much value and is making money," adding:

"It's also quite a tourist attraction. We are dealing with the owners now. We'll either buy it or lease it from them, whichever they prefer."

TWO LEADING HOCKEY TEAMS BEATEN FRIDAY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Both the Providence Reds and the Hershey Bears, tied for first place in the Eastern Division, got their lumps Friday night in the American Hockey League.

The Reds were whipped on their home ice by the Quebec Aces 3-0 as goalie Charlie Hodge scored his fourth shutout of the season. The Bears took an 8-3 pasting at Baltimore as the Clippers played perhaps their best game of the season.

Dick Gamble's 31st goal of the campaign with just two seconds to play gave the Rochester Americans a 6-5 home ice victory over the Cleveland Barons in the other AHL game scheduled Friday.

TIED AT 69

The results left Providence and Hershey tied at 6 points each with Quebec third at 65 and Baltimore, still hopeful of making the playoffs, next with 61. Rochester moved within six points of second place Cleveland in the Western Division.

George Ford, Ted Hampson and Sandy McGregor each rapped home two goals in Baltimore's rout of Hershey. Skip Burchell and John Hanna gave Quebec an early 2-0 lead all the Aces needed in view of Hodge's fine work in the cage.

Cleveland rallied from a 5-2 deficit to tie at 5-5 on two goals by Jim Mikol and one by Bill Needham before Gamble scored the winner from 10 feet at 19:58 of the third period.

Providence and Hershey, the two leaders, battle tonight at Hershey with Rochester at Cleveland, Baltimore at Buffalo and Pittsburgh at Springfield.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Defense Department Friday issued a draft call for 10,000 men in May. All will serve in the Army. The May quota is the same as that announced for April and compares with 9,000 for March.

One of Notre Dame's basketball stars this season is Larry Sheffield, a sophomore guard from Troy, N. Y.

The "Sachs" wooden covered bridge at the Water Works (top) is shown in the distance framed by two of the foundation structures for the new span being constructed upstream to replace it. A new road is also being built, eliminating a sharp curve and a "dog leg" on the narrow road. The span is one of two covered wooden bridges to be preserved in the county. After the state builds and opens the new road the wooden bridge will be turned over to the townships and county.

Board To Rule On Racial Fuss

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Mississippi State's hopes of ending years of tradition and playing in the desegregated NCAA basketball tournament go before the powerful State College Board today.

The 13-man board acts as the Board of Trustees for all of Mississippi's institutions of higher learning.

Dr. D. W. Colvard, president of Mississippi State, announced last week he was throwing aside the state's so-called "unwritten law" and would send his school's team to the NCAA tournament, even if it means playing a team with Negroes.

State is scheduled to play its first regional playoff game March 15 at East Lansing, Mich. Its probable opponent would be Loyola of Chicago, a team with four Negro starters.

AGED SOPRANO DIES

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

HOLYOKE, Mass. (AP)—Miss Marie L. Brackman, 90, retired concert and vaudeville mezzo soprano known as the Gainsborough Girl at the turn of the century, died Friday after a lingering illness. Miss Brackman was the first woman ever heard in a concert over the telephone. She teamed with bass artist Courtney Casler Feb. 5, 1916, to sing "Hello Frisco" when the first New York to San Francisco telephone line opened.

Fatalism Has Ruled Heart Of Syria For Generations

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

The tortured heart of Arab nationalism is in Syria, its birthplace. In Syria may be the key to its future.

In the dusty, colorful streets of Damascus, the oldest continuous city in the world, there is a permanent atmosphere of tension and anxiety.

It is a strange atmosphere. You cannot put your finger on just what is wrong. The Damascenes have lived with the feeling for generations and they are fatalistic about it.

MANY CLASHES

Syria has exploded many times, each time with repercussions throughout the Arab East. In an era of cold war and world tension, the explosions become progressively more dangerous. Unfortunately for Syria, her geography is far too important for her to be left alone in peace.

Syria, the ancient land of the Phoenicians, lies at the eastern end of the Mediterranean with an important bustling port at Latakia. Across the country run 430 miles of pipeline of the Iraq Petroleum Company, feeding vital fuel to Europe's industry. Syria occupies the western part of the Arab East's fertile crescent, and greater Syria has been a dream of many nationalists.

The clash between the modern West and the ancient East is evident on all sides. Swank Arabs finger their ever-present beads but look as Western as Chicagoans. In restaurants and cabarets they mingle with dark-skinned bearded sheiks in robes and head-dress from the provinces or other parts of the Arab East.

BLOOD-SPATTERED

Syria is a land of contradictions, rich in the history of Islam and Christianity but splattered with the blood of the eternal clash between East and West.

Syria's wounds are deep and old. Once she was a proud nation dominating a vast area. But she has a history of indignities, of colonialism, of big power politics. Hatred rages in the Arab breast for neighboring Israel, which the Arabs consider an expression of western imperialism.

Syria's history is one of invasions: By the Egyptians, the Assyrians, the Macedonians, the Persians, the Mongols, and finally the Turks of the Ottoman Empire, who ruled the country harshly for 400 years. After World War I the French came to the Levant with a League of Nations mandate.

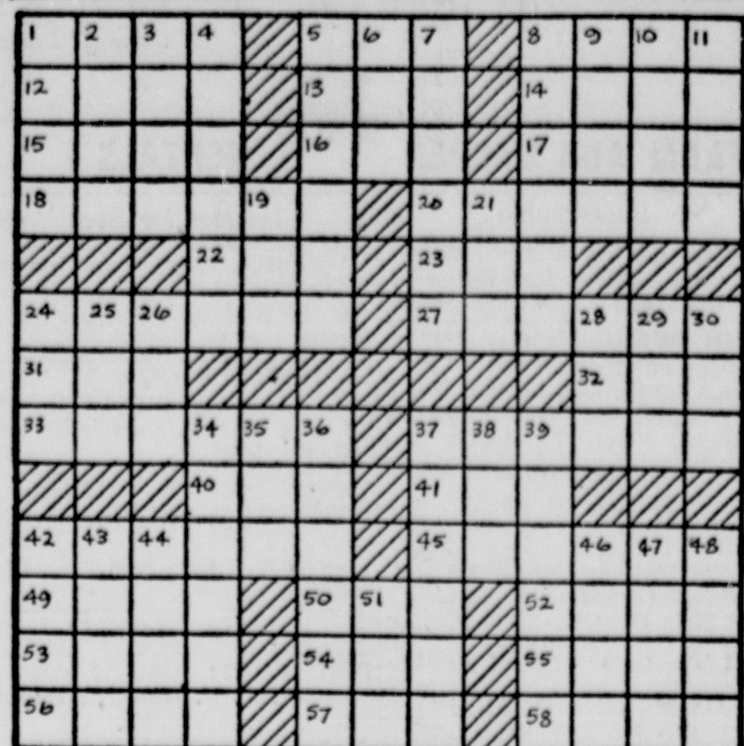

The Syrians were restless and resentful under the French and there were many disturbances. By the end of World War II, the French could hold out no longer and Syria won her independence in 1946.

BRIEF UNITY

The only semblance of unity Syria achieved in modern times with other Arabs was her brief stay in President Gamal Abdel Nasser's United Arab Republic from March 1958, until September 1961.

It took a deep crisis to bring that about. In 1957 the Russians moved in on Syria with a bang.

They signed a technical and economic agreement and began providing the Syrians with arms. A leftist regime was in control and the Communists had a field day.

The 1957 crisis arose over tensions with neighboring Turkey, possibly generated by the Russians as a means of lending a helping hand to the Communists in Syria. Damascus began to look like a wartime capital. Syrians now worried about two potential enemies, one in the north—Turkey—and the most feared foe of all—Israel—to the south.

SOVIETS ENTRY

The situation was ready made for the Russians, and they leaped into it eagerly. But there seemed to be a large degree of fear that the Communists were getting entirely too powerful. This apparently played a large part in the willingness of Syrian leaders to let their country be absorbed into Nasser's U.A.R.

Syria would have been unhappy under the Communists. But she

SATELLITE IS ACTIVE AFTER LONG SILENCE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Navy's developed solar radiation satellite is healthy and transmitting again after 22 silent months of orbiting the earth, it was announced Friday.

The civilian space agency statement said telemetry indicated no signs of deterioration, "proving the satellite has successfully withstood high - radiation bombardments."

The satellite was launched from Cape Canaveral on June 22, 1960, and spent eight months providing scientists with detailed information on solar flares.

The 42 - pound satellite was turned off by radio signal on April 18, 1961, when the magnetic drag reduced the satellite's spin to a level too low for useful scanning of the sun.

IS BEST STUDY

On Feb. 25, National Aeronautics and Space Administration trackers turned the satellite's transmitters back on.

Meanwhile, NASA, on the first anniversary of its orbiting solar observatory, OSO-1, said that satellite has proved to be its most successful in a scientific study of space.

Launched a year ago Thursday, OSO has exceeded its estimated operating life by six months.

Eleven of its 13 complex scientific experiments still are functioning.

These instruments, NASA said, have "sent back to earth more data on the behavior and composition of man's nearest star—the life-giving sun—than any single ground-based observatory and all previous rocket, balloon and satellite flights combined."

Preliminary results of the solar laboratory experiments will be made public at a symposium here next Thursday.

Democrat Leads For Governor

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Democrat Paul Rolyvaag picked up four more votes Friday as the phase of the Minnesota gubernatorial recount trial dealing with disputed ballots wound up.

This gave Rolyvaag a 78-vote lead over Republican incumbent Gov. Elmer L. Andersen—a margin Democrats say Andersen cannot overtake.

The three-judge recount panel immediately began hearing evidence on defective ballots, mis-handled absentee ballots and alleged irregularities which occurred during the recount.

was unhappy under the Egyptians, too. Nasser's forces moved in quickly, abolished Syrian political parties and instituted what seemed a dictatorial rule of Egyptians over Syrians.

Finally, in September, 1961, there was a coup by Syrian army officers, and the Egyptians were turned out.

15 ARE KILLED IN EXPLOSION

ARNSBERG, Germany (AP) — At least 15 persons were killed and another 40 injured in an explosion that ripped through a forging plant at Bieleke near here today, police reported.

A spokesman said 15 bodies had been recovered from the debris. Many of the injured were in serious condition, police said.

The blast occurred about 9 a.m. Police said it was believed caused by the bursting of a pipe carrying compressed air.

All the victims were believed to be workers of the plant, which belongs to the Stepmann Works. The drop forging industry in this region—easter Westphalia—is hundreds of years old.

"It's a terrible scene," one eyewitness said. "The ceiling came down and buried many of the workers. They are still searching for more bodies."

Many Italians are employed by the Siepmann plant. Police said identification of the victims may take several hours.

GRAMBLING IS SEEDED FIRST

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Grambling, La., College with two top players from its 1961 NAIA championship team, has been seeded first in the 32-team NAIA Basketball Tournament which starts Monday in Kansas City.

Grambling eliminated the 1962 NAIA champion, Prairie View, Tex., in league play, then beat Dillard, La., in the district playoffs for its fourth trip to the Kansas City meet in five years. Willis Reed, 6-foot-10, and Hershel West, 6-2, returnees from the '61 team, have led the Tigers to a 26-2 record, good for second place in the final Associated Press small college poll.

Augsburg, Minn., 24-2, the No. 6 team in the poll, was seeded second. The other leading seeded teams, in order, were Winston-Salem, N.C., 23-6; Oklahoma Baptist, 21-6; Howard Payne, Tex., 22-6; Rockhurst of Kansas City, 25-3; Western Illinois, 19-7, and Indiana State, 17-6.

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Ben Hogan was recovering today from surgery to correct a painful shoulder condition.

The famed professional golfer, now 50, underwent surgery Friday involving the repair of a collarbone defect in the left shoulder. The shoulder condition, caused by the 1949 automobile accident which nearly cost Hogan his life, had worsened over the years.

Shelley Berman:

Subject And Star Of Sunday Documentary

Shelley Berman is both the subject and star of a special documentary (Sunday, NBC, 10 p.m.). The pace of keeping up with Berman's routinely hectic life caused a cameraman to say, "There's nothing funny about comedy to a comedian."

By RUTH E. THOMPSON

"Shelley Berman? Who's she?" Shelley himself wryly quotes this to prove there still are a few people around who haven't heard of him. Hard to believe, though, because between his recordings, and television and personal appearances, there's hardly a corner of the English-speaking world that hasn't been exposed to his humor.

"What's he like?" if the more frequent question ... and the DuPont Show of the Week (Sunday March 10, 10-11 p.m., NBC-TV) has gone to extraordinary lengths to get facts for its documentary "Shelley Berman Back-DON'T SHOOT stage."

His tailor Pat Caruso ran up some special suits to contain and conceal electron equipment and they wired Shelly for sound, moved the cameras in on his life, followed him from New York to Florida, in and out of elevators, in and out of automobiles — even into the ocean. "Just don't shoot me while I'm asleep," said the otherwise cooperative comic. So they ended up with a total of 40 wide-awake, frantic hours (which are having to be edited down to one for the telecast). One of the cameraman reports he found the Korean War less dangerous and he's planning to go to Africa now "for a nice quiet vacation."

No, Shelley didn't mind this major invasion of privacy at all (though "it did seem as if the crew was with me for years!"), feels it may be sort of a service to all comedians "by showing we're not dehumanized, fictional beings. We're just people who eat, sleep and work."

LONG HOURS

His kind of work, however, he goes on, "is maybe lonelier." When he's doing a theater or night club performance there's no going out to dinner with friends (never eats before a show) and when he's through, "it's 2 a.m. Everybody else has already gone home." Comedy, you gather, is a pretty serious business.

Each new audience he feels has to be won. "That's why I never like to work less than 40 minutes. When you start out, it's like having guests at home whom you don't know very well. Everybody's polite and careful for about fifteen minutes, then gradually you find you're beginning to communicate, even your vocabulary changes and in half an hour they'll be laughing at jokes you'd have been afraid to tell at the beginning."

By now it's second nature for him to wow an audience but he doesn't have to be "in person" to get across. His fear-laden, devil-may-care airline passenger has become one of comedy's great classics and even minus his desperate facial characterizations none of the impact seems lost. His was the first nonmusical album to be awarded a Gold Medal, and no wonder, practically the whole world was buying.

DOLPHIN TALK

Do dolphins talk? The question keeps coming up, but whether they do or not they going to be talked about on the March 8 Jack Paar Show (NBC) when Dr. John C. Lilly, a neuro-psychologist tells of the research "to establish a form of communication between man and animals — a field in which the government is interested for possible application to life on other planets." The celebrated good humor of the high-jumping marine creatures will come in for attention too, via films of Randy Paar, frolicking with dolphins in Nassau.

"TELEPHONE HOUR"

Beginning September 24 the "Bell Telephone Hour" will be increased to an alternate week schedule (Tuesdays 10 to 11 p.m. on NBC-TV). Further, there will be no "summer hiatus" for the show in 1964.

The program will continue in the same format, blending operatic and symphonic selections with popular music. Donald Voorhees continues as conductor.

Shelley Berman

ago when one of their neighbors dashed in with the scoop of the evening. The record shop, it seemed, by the end of the week would positively have a new stock of "Inside Shelley Berman" and the neighbor who'd been first on the block to discover Berman had thoughtfully put George's name on the waiting list.

After "Inside . . ." came "Outside Shelley Berman," followed by "Shelley Berman on Edge." Now there's the newest "Shelley Berman" ("A Personal Appearance"), this last with some of the more solemn vignettes he created when ABC put an hour at his disposal last year "freewheel as he saw fit."

He says that, every time he does the sketch about how he broke the news to his father that he was going on the stage, his emotions become so intensely involved that he gets close to tears.

CHICAGO TRAINED

Shelley had a sound apprenticeship: In acting before comedy ever entered his life, and in the dismal wandering and waiting for opportunity that is the lot of most who choose show business. Sarah, though, he says proudly was always right there with him.

It was in acting school in his hometown — Chicago — that he fell in love with young and pretty fellow-student, Sarah Herman. After they were married, she gave up her own acting aspirations to concentrate on Shelley's career and while he worked for two years in the Woodstock Stock Company she helped out with the expenses by gift wrapping packages at Marshall Field's.

In 1949 they felt he was ready for the big time and, not having any money, they hitchhiked around the country seeking theater work until they got to Hollywood.

In cinema-land, Shelley did get jobs: teaching speech, driving a cab, assisting the assistant manager of a drug store and teaching dancing at Arthur Murray's.

SUMMER STOCK

Then Geraldine Page, an old friend and a new star breezed into Hollywood, persuaded Shelley that summer stock in New York was the thing for him and he followed her advice staying on after the season to do some TV acting and some writing (for Steve Allen).

It was one trip back to Chicago that really did the trick. He worked with the Compass Players who did cabaret improvisations and he found a solo starring style that catapulted him onto the Jack Paar Show, then 12 guest spots on the Ed Sullivan Show and bookings in major night clubs throughout the country. He broke the record at the posh Empire Room in New York's Waldorf Astoria and is wistfully proud of having his Florida booking sold out in advance "even for the night before New Year's Eve!"

After the great success of his albums he added concert work where he could play before large audiences in college auditoriums and the like "because after all, I don't want people carrying an image of me as circulating black vinyl!"

HAPPY HOME LIFE

How has success affected him, what will he do next? He doesn't know but he's restless, driving and creative. He's sure that instead of "just doing more of the same" he'll find new styles and new formats.

The office part of his nine-room from the mayor's mansion in New York City is a busy thoroughfare as his business manager, secretary, and poodles come and go, colliding with visiting press people. It's a handsome room, wood panelling, one goldish mirrored wall which makes it seem larger, good books and crazy signs beautifully framed. He's especially fond of one filched from a network. It reads: "Conference Room Only, Not to be Used as a Dressing Room." Says he thinks he'll create a sign of his own some day: "Do Not Read This Sign" . . . but in the meantime he was OKing a message to Sarah, "Happy, Happy Day" because "no woman — even one as young as my wife — wants you to remind her it's her birthday, just to remember it."

ORIGINALS SHOWN AT MUSEUM

Among the 26 programs which CBS-Television Network is making available to the Museum of Modern Art are the original Playhouse 90 productions of "Requiem for a Heavyweight" and "The Miracle Worker" both of which were later adapted into movies.
